The delay in submitting this application was owing to the necessity of examining 17 years pay Abstracts. The accountants employed in preparing and examining these lists, having had besides other work to attend to, in consequence of three Native accountants having gone out on furlough.

27. This person was subject to epilepsy, and he was allowed sick leave for upwards of a year. During which time, he was under medical treatment. Hopeless of recovery, he requested to be permitted to resign, and his resignation was accepted on the 17 September 1868. Then, he applied for a gratuity on the 23 October 1868 and Order were passed by the Collector that the Public Works Department

Sir,

With reference to your Official Memorandum, No. 41, dated 6th September 1869, I have the honor to state that it appears from the records that Mylapore Padman had been on sick leave, and under medical treatment for leprosy, that he appeared on the 17th September 1868, and requested that he might be allowed to retire, & that his name might be struck off the list, as his complaint was incurable. His name was accordingly struck off the list from that day. On the 2nd October 1868, he applied for the gratuity.

2 Though it was informal for him not to have applied for gratuity when he wished to retire, he did not intend, it would appear, to forfeit his right to gratuity. He applied for gratuity a fortnight after he retired.

I have the honor to be

Report of the Examiner of Claims. (Here enter July 1869, No. 133.)
From the Acting Collector of Nellore. (Here enter 29th September 1869, No. 1858.)

ORDER THEREON, 27th October 1869, No. 360.

From the foregoing application, and the papers accompanying it, it appears that the applicant, Mylapore Rutnam, a Moochee on the establishment of the Collector of Nellore, served up to the 17th September 1868, for a period of seventeen years, two months, and thirteen days; that he had then been on six leave for upwards of a year, and under treatment for leprosy; that on the date above mentioned, he requested permission to retire as his disease was incurable, and that his name might be struck off the list of establishment, which was accordingly done; and that on the 2nd October following, he applied for gratuity and was ordered to produce a medical certificate, which he did on the 19th November, two months after his retirement. The delay in the submission of application till the 25th June 1869 is said to be owing to the necessity of examining seventeen years' Pay Abstracts, and to the absence of the Native Accountants on Jamabandi Circuit.

2. It is stated that, at the time he requested permission to retire, the applicant did not intend by resigning, to abandon his claim to gratuity; and the Government observe that, under the Orders noted in the margin, it was the Collector's duty to have explained to him the effect of his act, and to have pointed out to him the steps necessary to enable him to obtain the gratuity to which he was entitled. The delay in the submission of the application has not been adequately explained, and the Government request that measures may be taken by the Collector to insure the speedy disposal of applications for pension in future.

3. Under the circumstances, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to sanction under the old Rules, subject to the confirmation of the Government of India, the grant of a gratuity of five months' pay, or Rupees 50 to Mylapore Rutnam.
