Proceedings of the Madras Government, Judicial Department, 6th October 1869.

No. 15. Read the following letter from the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Judicial Department, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated Simla, 10th September 1869, No. 3309.

I acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 1306, dated 12th September, and in reply, I beg to inform you that the question raised in your letter as to the eligibility for pension or gratuity, as the case may be, of the Clerks of the Registration Establishments in the Madras Presidency who have been thrown out of employ in consequence of the fixed establishments of the Registration Department having been done away with, and a system of allowance to Registrars for the provision of their own establishments having been introduced.

2. In reply, I am directed to state that the Registration Establishments in the Madras Presidency, previous to the introduction of the system of payment thereof by contract allowance, were on an experimental footing, and, under the rules, service on such establishments is regarded as temporary, and cannot count for pension, except in the case of persons who are retained on the final revision of the establishments. The Governor General in Council is, therefore, unable to meet the wishes of the Government of Madras, in regard to those Clerks of the Registration Establishments in that Presidency who, previous to their employment on those establishments, held no offices under Government.

3. In regard to such of the Clerks as had previously served in eligible grades under Government, and resigned their appointments to take employment in the Registration Department, His Excellency in Council is pleased to direct that, as a special case that in consequence of their discharge from the Registration Department, they may be treated as servants thrown out on reduction of establishments, and be allowed such pension or gratuity as their total service under Government (including the period of their employment in the Registration Department) may entitle them to.

Ordered that a copy of the above be forwarded to the Accountant General, Madras.

No. 16. ORDER THEREON, 6th October 1869, No. 1607.

Communicated to the Acting Registrar General of Assurances, with reference to his letter, dated the 27th August 1868, No. 91, and to the Pension Department.
