Sir,

1 Lakshmana Sing.
2 Potireddy Veerayah.

I have the honor to forward 2 Registers of applications for Compassionate allowance on behalf of the 2 Peons noted in the margin, who were reduced when the late Masulipatam and Guntoor Districts were amalgamated on 16th December 1859, and request that you will be pleased to recommend their cases to Government if you consider them entitled to the compassionate allowance under Orders of Government dated 17th February 1864.

These individuals applied for this allowance on 2d March 1867 and 28th March 1868 respectively. The Huzur records by which their services might have been verified were lost in the Cyclone of 1st November 1864; they have been sworn to the truth of their services as entered in the Registers: affidavits in corroboration have been taken from their former fellow servants. They were peons on the Establishment of the late Masulipatam Collector.

With reference to your letter of the 19th ultimo x I have the honor to submit my explanation.

31. The applicants' heirs did not apply for the arrears of compassionate allowance due to them up to the date of their demise.

34. The English translation of affidavit is given on the back of the same.

39. The Service given in the gratuity list was not correct, the information received from the Taluks at that time having been furnished without being carefully verified. The Service however has been correctly entered in the Register of application, the same having been verified from the records of the Taluks where the applicants served. In the case of Ammattu Khan Valadoo Sulaman Khan and V. Adappa, I have the honor to state that instead of showing 40-1-" and 28-4-27 in the Column headed period of service given by the Collector in the lists for gratuity, years 40 & 25-9 were erroneously entered thro oversight. The name of the 2nd applicant was entered in the gratuity list "Ammed Khan" with reference to the statement receive from the Taluk while in the Register of his application his name was altered into "Ammath Khan" as stated in his affidavit which appears to be correct. The difference between the affidavits of the applicants and their Register is owing to the former being stated by them from memory while the entries in the latter were made with reference to the available records and the affidavi of the applicants.

2 Of these peons, the individuals whose names are given in the margin can count more than 30 years Service a point which the Civil Paymaster seems to have overlooked and can therefore be dealt with under the Financial Resolution of the Government of India respecting discharged Peons. They will accordingly be admitted to a compassionate allowance of Rs 2-8 a each per mensem, on the Collectors' submitting the usual registers of application. It is desirable that the Collector should, as required by the order of Government in the Revenue Department of the 12th February 1864 No 264, submit without delay the cases of all

Note. The evidence of service in these cases chiefly consists of affidavits, the entire service having been verified by record in ~~no single~~ none of the cases. Most of these servants obtained gratuities before 1863, under the old rules, in many cases on periods of service less than those now claimed. The explanation given is that, as only twenty years service was required for the maximum gratuity under the old rules verification of service to that extent only was sought for. The additional service necessary for compassionate allowances is now claimed on affidavits only, which, though admissible under the rules, are unsatisfactory evidence. The allowance has however been sanctioned in numerous similar cases.
