8 The alleged services of the individuals named in these Registers have all been proved from the records.

9 It is impossible now to certify that the characters of the individuals are good or otherwise. The circumstance of their being retained in the service is proof presumptive of good conduct unless they have been dismissed or suspended. No Register of this kind has ever been retained to which reference can be made.

14 Particular care is taken to describe the individuals recommended for pension or gratuity as fully as possible. Where the descriptive marks are sparing it is because the individual has no more which may be noted.

Cause of delay

21 Although many of the applicants for compassionate allowance may have ceased to do duty in 1860 as stated yet there were no retiring allowances to the benefit of which they could be recommended until the Government in their order of 17 February/64 declared that a Compassionate allowance of Rupees 2-8-„ each may be granted to all persons discharged for the purpose of reducing Public Establishments

after after they had rendered 30 years' service. In October/66 their applications were submitted with others for Compassionate allowance but were returned by the Examiner of claims with his letter No. 536 dated 23rd November 1866 which was received on the 4th December following and regret that from being mislaid they were not resubmitted earlier than the 22nd March last.

25 Complied with.

27 Nursimmah applied for the Compassionate allowance on the 24th June 1864. the information as to the date of his death has been called for which when received will be intimated.

30 Gollahs are employed in Treasuries to count money, carry money bags, pack up remittances and the general duties of the Treasury.

31 Nursimmah has left one son, who resides in Coravakondah in Gooty Talook. He has not applied for the arrears.

Twelve applications are now submitted.

Note. The remaining two on behalf of Gidda Cassim and Adam Futty Hamed will be submitted on receipt of the information from the Talooks.

39. A Sunchasein is an Officer that presides over 10 or more duffadars. A Cutwal dandea is synonomous with that of Cutwal's peon. All these are paid from the General Revenues of the State.

40. The discrepancy pointed out arose from the being two individuals of the name of Nursinmiah who were employed as Gollahs. The one who reckoned his Service from 1st February 1808 (vide 30th April list for 1809) & another whose Services are reckoned from 22nd June 1819 (vide 30th April list for 1820). Up to 31st July 1827 their Services were Synchronous & the former individual was dismissed on the 1st August 18 owing to his Sight failing. The latter individual is the person now recommended for Compassionate allowance. He is called Dhurmapoory Nur-

-mmeah in contradistinction to the other who is entered in the Return as Bellary Nursimmah.

Note. Two other applications for gratuity are -wwith submitted. One of the two individuals whom it was intended to recommend for Com- passionate allowance & whose applications were delayed awaiting information from the Taluks is now found to be ineligible thereto. An appli- cation for a gratuity is submitted on his ac- count as well as the application for Com pas sion- te allowance on account of the other.

Sir,

In returning the petition dated 6th October 1868 from three individuals viz Hanumappah, Sha Ahmed and Abdulla Saib to the address of the Government of Madras in the pension department and its two enclosures referred to me for report with an endorsement of the 16th November 1868 No. 2263 of the Under Secretary to Government I have the honor to report that their applications for compassionate allowance were submitted to the Examiner of Claims on the 15th October 1866 but were returned on the 23d of November 1866 together with other applications for further information - they have now been retransmitted and will shortly come before the Government -

2. I regret to say that there has been a most culpable delay in the submission of these applications the explanation for which if such it can be called is contained in the enclosed letter

* letter from the Deputy Collector in charge of the Treasury. I had not long assumed office before I discovered that the Head Clerk referred to was physically & mentally unfit for the duties of his post. He is now absent on sick leave on the expiration of which if he does not retire he will be removed from his office.

* No. 332 dated 16th instant.

3. Under the above circumstances I venture to hope with reference to those individuals who have died in the interim that the arrears of the Compassionate allowances up to the dates of their decease may be made payable to their heirs.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obedt Servant.

A H Sullivan

afforded by the Collector in his letters dated 29th June and 11th September 1869 respectively, regarding the cause of delay in the submission of application until 1866 and 1869, when the applicants ceased to do their duties in 1860/1861 and 1863, and should Government be pleased to accept also the explanation given by the Collector in item No. 9 of his replies dated 29th June 1869 with reference to his omitting to enter the past Character and Conduct of the applicants, in each of the Registers.

From the Collector of Bellary (Here on the 15th October 1868 and 8th September 1869)

Reports of the Examiner of Claims (— on 14th October 1869 Nos 110 to 116 & 118 to 124 and No 114.)

Orders thereon 13th December 1869 No 440.

The foregoing papers relate to applications for gratuities and compassionate allowances to 15 servants who were thrown out of employ on the revision of the Establishments in the Bellary District in 1860.

2. His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to the individuals

2. Sivaji.
3. Dandayi Shekh Imâm

5. Pattâla Masûd

named in the margin, compassionate allowances of Rs 2.8.0 per mensem, with arrears from 11th Decr 1863. The peon Nágarchi Muskkin who has been recommended for compassionate allowance is not eligible to it, as he was dismissed for misconduct in January 1835, and thereby lost the benefit of his former service of 8 yrs. 3 m. 15 d.; but for his service of 24 y. 11 m. 6 d (not 28-6-7 as stated by the Examr of Claims) he is entitled to a gratuity of six months pay or Rs 24; and the payment of this sum is sanctioned under the old rules.

3. His Excellency in Council is also pleased to sanction under the old rules to the individuals specified in the margin, the gratuities noted against their names.

	Rs. a. p.
1. A. Fakr-u-dîn	17. 8. 0
2. Adam Fatte Hammad	24. 0. 0
3. Gidda Kâsîm alias Shekh Kâsîm	17. 8. 0
4 Abdulla Sâheb	84. 0. 0

4. As regards the treasury peon Golla Narasimhappa, decease the Government observe that servants of his class have not hitherto been held eligible to compassionate allowances; and that no further orders are necessary, the gratuity to which he was entitled having been paid in 1860.

5. There has been considerable delay in the disposal of these claims. The Treasury Deputy Collector, Mr B. A. Blake, states that in 1866, 109 applicati for compassionate allowa were forwarded to the Exr of Claims including those above disposed of and that 21 of them were returned for amendment.

These were handed over to the Collector's Head Clerk, Mr Howell with instructions to prepare the necessary replies; and it is said that when the applicants complained of the delay, Mr Howell represented that the applications had been re-submitted to the Examiners of Claims. In Novr 1868, two of the applicants petitioned Government, and on a reference to the Collector for report it was discovered that the applications had not been submitted as alleged by Mr Howell, but kept by him in his desk. They were finally submitted to the Examiner of Claims on the 22nd March 1869.

6. The applications for gratuities ~~were~~ also first sent up in 1866, but were lost in transmission. This fact was known in April 1868, yet the duplicate applications were not forwarded till March 1869. The Deputy Collector says that "the applicants had to be sent for, and fresh certificates obtained from the Doctor." He should have been aware that no medical certificates were necessary in these cases. The explanation is quite inadmissible ~~is absurdly inadequate~~.

7. The delays which have occurred in the disposal of these cases appear most culpable; as the list of unanswered references in the Collector's Office, if properly kept, would have indicated the delay. The Deputy Collector Mr Blake, will be informed that his explanation is ~~considered most~~ unsatisfactory ~~inadmissible~~ and that the Government consider that ~~he is~~ he has been negligent in the performance of his duty. The Acting Collector of Bellary will take the necessary steps to ensure the retirement of Mr. Howell who is described as no longer fit for the work of his Office.
