Sir

In reply to your Memo dated the 17th in Alkins No. 44, I have the honor to forward herewith

Copy of a letter dated the 2nd Inst. No. 407 from the Asst. Sub Collector of this District together with its enclosure from which it will be seen that public service when about 27 years of age but that the appointments which he held between 1831 and 1860 were for broken periods and in grades which do not entitle to pension and were not on that account apparently entered in the application for gratuity made in his behalf.
