Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department, 20th December 1869.

Read the following letter from the Deputy Collector in charge of the Treasury, Madras District, to the Accountant-General, Fort Saint George, dated Sydapet, 19th October 1869, No. 238.

Begs to enclose copy of a letter from the Deputy Collector in charge of the Salt Department, Madras, No. 238, dated 11th instant, and solicits instructions whether the sum of Rupees 84, being the amount of gratuity drawn by Ranga Chari, Salt Superintendent of Attiput, may be received by instalments under the circumstances therein mentioned, or recovered at once.

From the Deputy Collector in charge of the Salt Department, Madras, to the Acting Collector of Madras, dated Madras, 11th October 1869, No. 238.

I have the honour to forward an Urzi, from the Superintendent of Attiput, begging that he may be permitted to refund, by monthly instalments of ten rupees, the amount of gratuity (Rupees 84) drawn by him in 1845, on the abolition of the employment which he held as Conocopyllay in the Sayer Department.

2. Ranga Chari states that, when he was re-employed in the public service, he was not called upon to refund the gratuity, and that he was only lately informed that, unless this is done, the service for which gratuity was granted would not be counted as service towards pension.

3. Under these circumstances, I beg to recommend that he may be permitted to refund the gratuity which he drew in 1845, by monthly instalments of ten rupees.

No. 220.

MEMORANDUM.

Submitted to Government, for their consideration and orders, with the remark that the above-mentioned individual received a gratuity of Rupees 84 in 1845, was re-employed in 1852, and did not apply to be allowed to refund the gratuity until now.

Memorandum.

With reference to the recent notification regarding immediate refund of gratuities drawn on accounts of former service, to enable the recipients if re-embodied prior to 15th September 1862 to count their former service towards pension, the Accountant General submits for orders an application from Rungachari, Salt Superintendent of Attiput, in the Madras District, to be permitted to refund a gratuity of Rs 84, drawn by him in 1845, by monthly instalments of Rs 10. The applicant is within the scope

DECEMBER.

Permitting Runga Chari, Salt Superintendent of Attiput, in the Madras District, to refund the gratuity drawn by him in 1845, by monthly instalments not less than half his pay, and ruling that the same terms will be allowed to other applicants similarly situated.

scope of the notification as he was entertained in 1852.

2. The terms of the order of the Government of India do not appear to furnish any indication as to the manner in which the refund should be made, whether in a lump sum
or by instalments.

3. By an Order of this Government passed on 11th October 1844, it was ruled that when public servants in active employment are desirous of claiming pension at the end of their service, they may refund any gratuity they may formerly have received, by monthly stoppages of half their pay;
and though in 1861, Government refused to adopt

G.O. 8th Sept. 1869. No. 3047.
"they must refund
the gratuity at once, and not wait till they wish to claim pension."

adopt this principle for the recovery of gratuities after retirement, from pension to be granted conditionally on the refund they subsequently in 1861 permitted this to be done.

4. Many applications of this kind are likely to be received consequent on the notification of the Government of India, and I submit that if a refund by instalments is to be allowed, they should be treated on a uniform principle and the stoppages be made at uniform proportion of the pay drawn by the applicants. The rate of stoppage adopted in 1844 does not seem too high, considering the benefits which the permission to refund
confers

confers upon the applicants. In the present case the proposed stoppage is at a much lower rate; and I submit that the applicant may be told that he will be permitted to make the refund by instalments
of half his pay, and that the same principle be applied to future similar applications.

never draw less than Rs 400.
