Remarks by the head of the Office on past character and conduct of the applicant throughout the service.

Has borne the highest character throughout his service which has been varied and always most efficient. Always ready to make himself useful in any way he actually forfeited promotion on more than one occasion because it was inconvenient to the service to remove him from the post he held and now that circumstances require his being dispensed with he is highly deserving of the favorable consideration of Government and I respectfully beg to recommend him for a Pension equal to ½ his average salary his service being in all over 21 years.

ORDER OF GOVERNMENT.

To

Colonel J. Carpendale, R.E.
Mint Master

Sir

I beg respectfully to submit for your most favorable consideration the following circumstances in connection with my Services in the Mint which are now about to cease in consequence of the reduction of the Mint Establishment in the humble hope that you will be pleased to recommend my case favorably to the Government for the Grant to me of pension of one half the Salary of my present Office in consideration of the Special Services I have rendered to the State in accordance with para: 8 of the Uncovenanted Service Rules regarding Allowances and Pensions as rewards for approved Services.

I was entertained on the Mint Establishment in July 1845 but owing to severe illness was compelled to resign my Office. After a break of 17 months I was re-entertained in July 1848 and I continue my Services up to the present time without interruption, or liability to [illegible] a penalty.

Certificate
Mr I. C. D'Silva employed in the Mint Office as a Writer and Accountant for one year and six Months, has permission to resign his Situation at his own request, his conduct and Services have been quite Satisfactory

Mint 25th January /47. (Signed) E. Buckle
Actg Mint Master

Certificate
"Mr D'Silva has been employed in the Mint Service July 1848 as Store keeper, and for a short time as Book keeper in the Mint Office.

During the whole of his service Mr D'Silva has been very regular in his attendance and correct in the performance of his duties so that I am enabled to place on record my unqualified approbation of his conduct which I do with much pleasure.

Mint 25th Augt /55. (Signed) J. T. Smith
Mint Master

During the period of upwards 21 years of my servitude, I have used my [illegible] exertions to manufacturing Acid, Blacklead Crucibles and rectifying Spirits of Wine for the Service of Government, without entailing Extra charges, and without prejudice to the discharge of my legitimate duties.

In the manufactures of the two former Articles, I have [illegible] considerable Savings to Government by improvements and facilitating processes.

In the latter, I undertook to rectify Spirits of Wine for the [illegible] Ordnance at a time when there was none found to supply the Department with the required Strength.

Extracts of the Report of Lieutt Colonel F. C. Cotton Actg Mint Master to Government, dated 2d February 1859.

"Mr D'Silva the Store keeper having by his admirable care reduced the Cost of Blacklead Crucibles very much, we were able to employ them and use any required heat without risk of their cracking in the fire."

"Mr D'Silva the Store keeper has had charge of the Acid Manufactory and has in this, as in every other work he has undertaken made important improvements. The Sulphuric Acid which was before supposed to cost four Annas a pound, does not now cost above two annas, though the price of the materials used is not reduced."

"The following Statement of the Cost of these Crucibles from the time they were imported from England will show how well Mr D'Silva the Store keeper has succeeded in this another of his several Manufactures."

"There is one Depart of the Mint that has not been mentioned

The Stores which are kept by Mr D'Silva a man of 10 years Service in the Mint and one of its very best Servants.

For a short time Mr D'Silva took his place as Treasurer but there was no one on the Establishment qualified for the management of the Stores and the Manufactures connected with them. And the Government having made the pay of the Office equal to that of the Treasurer, Mr D'Silva returned to his post where I hope he may remain till he can claim the emoluments of a 1st Class Superintendent"

Extract of a Diary Order of Lieutt Coll F. C. Cotton, Actg Mint Master, dated Mint 9th April /58.

The Acting Mint Master cannot close this order without noticing the efficiency of Mr D'Silva in the capacity of Treasurer during the short period he held the Office. A very necessary reform has been made by him in the Treasury and as the task was an unpopular one he deserves the greater credit for undertaking it."

ke the liberty of calling attention to Lieut. Colonel Cotton's letter to the late Mint Committee, from which it will be seen that my services were so greatly required, that it was not an easy task to fill my place by another, and that I was consequently often superceded and thereby frequently debarred from promotion.

> letter of Lieutenant Colonel F. C. Cotton > mint master to the Mint Committee, dated 9th March 1858.
> who has had charge of that Department of the > ment 10 years and has earned the highest character

> ir to Mr. D. Silva & so objectionable in principle ave moreover effected a Saving in the Copper Melting Department. When ge of the Department, Copper was melted in one-pot furnaces I constructe hold 4 pots each and thereby saved large consumption of fuel - nsideration of the above circumstances and as Government has kindly made n cases of approved Services, I beg again respectfully to solicit your n recommending me for Half Pension, for which act of benevolence I shall ateful.

I remain, Sir,
your most obedient Servant

Memorandum.

No. 29 The duties of P. Ponnumbulum as Weighingman in the Silver Laminating Room were to be present at the Treasury when the Concopoly of his Department received and delivered bullion, to see that the weight declared by the Treasury weighingman was correct, or to check any inaccuracy, and in the event of his omitting to object to an erroneous transfer he would become responsible to the Head of his Department for any consequent loss — He had also to weigh into his own Room all Bullion received, and weigh it out again in the evening, thereby keeping a check against peculation. He could not be regarded as a Menial or labourer. He was confirmed in April 1855 as permanent Weighingman, but no special mention was made in the Diary order to the effect that it was with retrospective effect, as no distinction existed in the Mint between Acting and permanent appointments.

No. 30 The duties of Condoor Narrainsawmy Naidoo as Deputy Superintendent Milling Cleaning and Stamping Rooms were

to

to aſsist the Superintendent of the Department generally in supervising the Workmen, and he had special charge of the room in which all Silver Coin was Milled on the edge and Cleaned in Acid prior to stamping, besides Keeping the Account of the receipts and deliveries, and recovering the Silver from the droſs which would otherwise have been lost:- His duty could not at any time be denominated a "handicraft" or regarded as that of a laborer or other inferior Servant -

The situation he held was much above that of a Coinicoply.

prescribed form, and I respectfully beg the particular attention of Government to my remarks on the Character and Services of each individual, as I trust they may lead to a favorable consideration of past services in certain Cases, and that under the peculiar circumstances of Men who are advanced in life, and whose best Years have been passed in the Mint in a calling which ill adapts them for gaining a livelihood elsewhere, and who from no fault are unexpectedly deprived of what they had regarded as a provision for life, the Government may be pleased to bestow on them Pensions somewhat in excess of what they may be declared entitled to by a strict application of the Pension rules. Foremost among these is Mr. M. Christian Superintendent of the Silver Laminating room who has been 41½ Years continuously in the service of Government. His services in the Mint have been meritorious, and he is far advanced in life. His average salary for the past 5 years was Rs. 190 and admitting his claim to half Pay Pension as Rs. 95 which a man is entitled to after 26 years service, I venture to hope that in consideration of his full age service of 39 Years the Government may be pleased to grant him a Pension of 120 Rupees.

2. Mr. J. Schwenke, Superintendent of Artificers, comes next. He has been 27 Years in the Mint and his present Salary including a personal Allowance is Rs. 140 but he has not enjoyed it for five Years; yet, as he is suddenly thrown out of employment, I have recommended him for a Pension of Rs. 70.

3. Mr. J. C. D'Silva of the Copper Department has been nearly 22 Years in the service, or, deducting one a half Year which he forfeited by leaving his situation in the commencement of his service on account of bad health, he counts as service for Pension upwards of 20 Years. He has been a most valuable Servant throughout his Career, and has on more than one occasion forfeited promotion because he could not be satisfactorily replaced in a less

less remunerative situation which he held; By the rules he would appear entitled to a Pension of Rs. 46-10-8 a Month but in consideration of his special services and that he loses a permanent situation of Rs. 140 a Month, I have recommended him for a Pension of Rs. 70 and I beg attention to his Petition to my address which accompanies.

4. G. Sonasoonderum Chetty Accountant,
Teagaroya Moodelly Conicopoly,
R. Moonesawmy Head Shroff,
P. Ponnumbalum Weighingman and Conicopoly, are all much older Men than they are said to be, and as the Pensions which they appear entitled to are very trifling I have added a few Annas to make the even sum of five Rupees Monthly which I trust may be passed.

5. C. Rungiah Naidoo Die Conicopoly is a similar case, and he only wants two Months service to complete the 15 Years, which would entitle him to a Pension of one third of his salary. He is old and feeble and unlikely to get other employment, on which account I have recommended him for a Pension of Rs. 5 Monthly.

6. It only remains for me to explain that since the Mint was reestablished in 1841 it had been customary to maintain certain servants on what was called the "permanent Contingent list". They were not on the Establishment – but they were always considered in the same light, and treated in all respects the same as the permanent Establishment Servants – Not being liable to dismissal as ordinary laborers and Artificers were as Coinage and other work fluctuated, and in giving these Men the benefit of their Service on the permanent Contingent list in calculating their Pensions, and the extent of which in each case is distinctly shewn in the applications, I am following the practice that has always prevailed in dealing with Old servants of the Mint.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

With his letter, above recorded, the Mint Master submits applications on behalf of ten persons, lately employed in the Mint, who are entitled to pension in consequence of reduction of the establishment, as ordered in the Proceedings of Government in the Financial Departt. 2. Mr Michael Christian Superintendent of the Silver Laminating
