Sir,

With reference to the Notification of the Board of Revenue dated 30th January 1868 (published at page 207 of the Fort St. George Gazette of 4th February 1868) limiting the time of application for pensions and gratuities by servants and peons thrown out of employ on the introduction of the new Revenue Establishments, I have the honor to forward herewith sixty one applications for gratuities embodied in 12 Registers for your approval and eventual submission to Government.

The delay in sending up these applications has been caused by the exceeding difficulty experienced in verifying the services of each individual by a reference to the records of the different Taluks in which he was employed; I beg to add that there is a large number of applications still under inquiry and pending reference to the Taluks which shall be submitted as soon as possible.

I have the honor to be,
