Pension Department
11th July 1863 No. 1123

Memorandum for orders.

This case is peculiar.
The applicant was a Subadar in the Karmool Horse which was abolished in 1863. He seems to to have been then only 21 years of age.
In Paras 21 and 23 of government Proceedings, 11th July 1863 No. 1123, it is laid down that service in the Mounted Police then to be raised should be offered to as many of the Commissioned officers and troopers of the Karmool Horse, as might be fit for it. Those who were not fit for further service were to be pensioned.
The Petitioner appears to have been qualified to have taken service in the Mounted Police.
He then got married, and in 1863 the Govt. Police as an Inspector on Rt. 7. this appointment he seems to have held for only one month; he was

was then degraded to a Head Constable on Rs 22, and 9 months afterwards again degraded to a Deputy ^{Constable} on Rs 16.8. he then resigned the service at his own request

It is not very clear from the Government Order of the 11th July 1853 whether it was intended that service in the Mounted Police or Foot Police was to be considered as a provision in lieu of pension, or whether it was intended that after service in the new Police the men of the old Hurmool Horse should still be entitled to the pensions granted under the special orders of Government whenever they choose to apply for them.

In regard to Revenue Peons who having been thrown out of employ by reductions, accepted service in the new Police, the rule is that if they are discharged for no fault of their own within five years of enlistment, they get the ~~pension~~ gratuity to which they would have been entitled had they never entered the Police. but after 5 years service in the Police, they get the superannuation allowance to which they are entitled

This would I submit be putting a forced construction on the order of Govt. The employment in the Mounted Police was given to those fit for this service but who were not qualified for pension by their service in the Hurmool Horse.

The present applicant resigned ^{Police} the service before five years. so that adopting the principle of Revenue peons drafted into the Police, he was ^{not} entitled to gratuity or compensatory allowance as Police men, and their former service as Peons is merged.

It is true that the special pension sanctioned for Silladars in the old Hurmool Horse was granted to a Silladar who entered the new Mounted Police, vide Government Order, Pension Department, 28 June 1855 No 35, but he was certified to be unfit for further service and had not been in the Police Force 2 years.

The present applicant is only 30 years old now, his degradation in the Foot Police and his reasons for resigning the service at his present age should certainly have been stated by the collector, but even if the explanation on these points is satisfactory some rule ought to be laid down as to the manner in which similar cases are to be treated in future with regard to the points raised in paras 3 & 4.

I venture to suggest that the order in this case should be, that "the applicant is not entitled either to gratuity or pension."

Order thereon 11th February 1869 No 60.

The Government do not consider Alty Khan late Deputy Constable in the Thiruvor Police, to be eligible either to a gratuity
or pension, as he resigned
the service at his own request when he was not incapacitated from sickness or other cause for the discharge of his duties.
