Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department, 18th February 1869.

Read the following papers :—

From the Superintending Engineer, 4th Division.

(Here enter 1st September 1868, No. 2662.)

Report of the Controller of Military Accounts.

(Here enter 27th November 1868, B.)

ORDER THEREON, 18th February 1869, No. 78.

It appears from the Register of the applications for gratuities above recorded that the three men therein described were employed in the

1. Teroovettesparan petiah Mootoosawmy.
2. Sydapet Audi.
3. Shaloor Chinnadoo.

Seven-Wells' Water-Works at Madras. The first as Peon, and the 2nd and 3rd as Cockturners.

2. The Peon's services commenced in 1817, and the services of the Cockturners in 1819 and in 1833, respectively. It is shown that the services of the Peon, T. Mootoosawmy, from 1817 to 30th November 1854, cannot be verified; but that he possesses testimonials of his services for that period; and that from December 1854 his services can be verified.

Cockturner Audi's services are, it is stated, shown in unauthenticated records from 1819 to 1831, and from 1832 they can be verified.

Cockturner Chinnadoo's services can be verified only from the 1st July 1839, i. e., 15½ months later than the date (14th April 1838) on which he entered the service.

3. The Superintending Engineer, 4th Division, considers that these men have fairly earned the gratuities sought for on their behalf; and he adds, "The men appear to be entitled, under paragraph 2 of the letter from the Secretary of State for India, communicated with G. O., "Public Works Department, dated 3rd April 1868, to compassionate allowances."

4. The Controller of Military Accounts considers the men to be eligible only to gratuities under the orders of Government, dated 4th July 1862, No. 491.

5. His Excellency the Governor in Council observes that, under the terms of the Despatch from the Secretary of State for India, dated the 14th October 1868, No. 432, paragraph 2, T. Mootoosawmy, Peon, and S. Audi, Cockturner, whose periods of service extend over fifty years and forty-nine years, respectively, are eligible to compassionate allowances, His Excellency in Council resolves, therefore, to sanction the grant to T. Mootoosawmy, Peon, an allowance of Rupees 3-8-0 per mensem, and to S. Audi, Cockturner, an allowance of Rupees 3 per mensem, commencing from the 1st May 1868.

6. As Shaloor Chinnadoo, the other Cockturner's service, is less than thirty-five years, sanction is accorded for the grant to him of a gratuity of Rupees (36) thirty-six, equal to six months' salary.

gratuity

I have the honor to submit for the favorable consideration and sanction of Government a register of an application for gratuities for three individuals, Pensions and Cook-stewards of the "Seven Wells" water works establishment in the Peridome of District.

2. The men have completed 30 years' service each, and have been thrown out of employ on account of old age and infirmity. Medical Certificates in support of the latter statement are enclosed:—

3. They appear to have conducted themselves satisfactorily during the whole of their service, and to have fairly earned the gratuities sought

I beg very submissively to state that I was entertained as a Peon in the Office of the Chief Engineer in 1817 and transferred to the Water works Dept^t in 1854, and now extending over a period of 50 years, so that I am now so infirm and old & unable to do the duties required of me - to work by day and night - which the Peons of the water works Dept^t are required to execute. I have served the best part of my youthful days in the service of Govt.

in consideration of my long & faithful services you will be pleased to obtain for me a compassionate allowance conferred by a paternal Govt to their old faithful servant for which Act of Kindness I shall ever pray for your long life and happiness.

It appears from the Register of the applications for gratuity above recorded that the three men therein described were employed in the Seven Wells water works at Madras. The first as Peon, and the 2nd & 3rd as Cockturners.
2. The Peon's service commenced in 1817, & the services of the Cockturners in 1819 and in 1838.

1838 respectively. It is shown that the services of the Ben, & Motsoomery from 1817 to 30th Nov. 1857, cannot be verified, but that he possessed testimonials of his services for that period, and that from Dec/57 his services can be verified.

Cockturner Audin's services are, it is stated, shown in authenticated records from 1819 to 1831, and from 1832 they can be verified.

Cockturner Chinmah's services can be verified only from the 1st July 1839. i.e. 15 1/2 months later than the date (14th April 1838) on which he entered the service.

The Superintending Engineer, & Division, considers that these men have fairly earned the gratuities sought for on their behalf; and he adds - "The men appear to be entitled, under para 2. of the letter from the Secretary of State for India, communicated with H. B. Public Works Department, dated 3rd April 1860, to compensation all allowances."

4. The Controller of Military Accounts considers the men to be eligible only to gratuities under the Orders of Govt. dated 4th July/60 No. 496.

5. His Excellency the Governor in Council observes that, under the terms

Chinnados, the other Cockturner's service,
is less than 35 years,
sanction is accorded
for the grant to him of a gratuity of Rupees (86)
thirty six, equal to six months' salary.
