ORDER OF GOVERNMENT.

Extract from the Proceedings of the Provincial Court of Appeal in the Western Division under date the 14th August 1843.

Read again Petition of Soobramanyam, late a Sheriff of the Auxiliary Court of Malabar, complaining of the Appt Judge having dismissed him from his situation on the 26th June last, on the grounds of his having wilfully ^{with} held payment of one pie, to a female servant formerly in the employ of Mr. Blair.

Read also attested copy of the Diary of the 24th June produced by Petitioner, and the Certificate of Character granted to him by the Acting Appt Judge Mr. J. Harris under date 8th July 1841.

The circumstance recorded by the Appt Judge in his Diary of the 24th June, that the Petitioner on being interrogated urged that he was about to pay the female the remainder, but as the copper coins were in another bag, it had not been done in opposition to the fact set forth also in the same order, that a small cash, one of which was required to make up the correct amount, was found in the bag from which the Petitioner had already given the woman three quarter anna pieces, is no doubt a suspicious circumstance. The Provincial Court however are of opinion from the smallness of the amount and the publicity of the transaction that it is possible that the deficiency may have proceeded from carelessness or oversight, and that the Sheriff when interrogated being fearful of the suspicion that might attach to this deficiency assigned the first reason that came to hand, and as the Appt Judge does not appear to have entertained any suspicion against the Petitioner until the day preceding that on which the case occurred and has also recorded in his certificate of the 8th July 1841, that he is "regular in his duties" and bears an "excellent character," that these circumstances should have been allowed weight, prior to proceeding to so extreme a measure as the dismissal of a servant who for 16 years had held the responsible situation.

of shroff with satisfaction to his superiors.

19 AA

2. The Provincial Court therefore on the above grounds resolve to modify the order of the Apt Judge to the extent of the shroff's suspension from his situation for a period of six months from the 24 June last.

Ordered that Extract from these proceedings be forwarded to the Apt Judge of Malabar, with Precept signed conformity thereto, and return to be made in two days.
