In letter No 252 dated 16 th November last sent by the Ag. Police Superintendent to the address of the Magistrate, a list of the Services of Rappusami Naik is required. But from the Office records it appears the Name of the Constable in question is Rappu Naik, and that he was appointed as Police Peon on 30 th December 1869 in succession to his brother Sundararoop Naik. If the latter name is found on enquiry to be correct, this list will answer the purpose.

To,

Constable N. 792 Coopoodawmy maichu,

Question,

In the list of service received from the Deputy Collector, it is shown, that your name is entered in the Records of his Office as Coopoodawmy maichu, whereas in the Police you are known as Coopoodawmy maichu. How do you account for this difference in names?

Answer.

From my infancy I was called Coopoodawmy maichu or Coopoodawmy maichu and I went by the two names when I was employed in the Revenue Department ^{at that time} the Revenue Department have entered my name as Coopoodawmy maichu in their records, and when I joined the Police I gave out my name as Coopoodawmy maichu & having meant no difference in the above names.

Question

When did you succeed in your employment as Police Peon in December 1869?

Answer.

I succeeded in my employment as Police Peon 15 days before my appointment in his room as Police Peon.

C. J. G. 22

This is to certify that the above statements was taken in my presence & under my superintendence.
