No 63.

District Police Office
Camp, Bellary 25th February 1870

Official - Memorandum.

The undersigned has the honor to inform the Assistant Inspector General in reply to No 117 of 21st February 1870, that Constable Chack Muctoom was sent for medical examination on 7th December and that on the 9th idem the Garrison Surgeon intimated by Docket that the individual was unfit for service when he was struck off the Force.
The Garrison Surgeon did not however send the formal Certificate required which was expected every day until 23rd December when the Christmas holidays led to a suspension of business until 4th January on which date it was thought advisable to remind the Garrison Surgeon that no certificate had been received. This Officer on 7th January wrote in reply that he required the Constable's attendance again at the Hospital and accordingly a Memo was sent to the Inspector of the Man's man's late Division requesting him to search for Thak Maatoom and send him again to Bellary - However on 21st January the Garrison Surgeon furnished the requisite Certificate
