Sir,

I have the honor to forward in view to your submitting it for the favorable consideration of Government the register of application for pension to one Mr Ireland late an Inspector in the office of Mr Windsor Collector of Income Tax for the town of Madras.

2 You will observe from the statement that the applicant served Government for a period of more than 22 years and seems for the greater part of that time to have conducted himself well as is shown by the testimonials he holds from his his former employers. During the latter part of his official career his behaviour was not satisfactory and he was consequently removed from his office of Distraining officer on the establishment of the Madras Deputy Collector. He however subsequently obtained re-employ = ment in the Licence Tax Department as an Inspector.

On the 12th February last 3
his then employer Mr Winscom recommended his dismissal for accepting presents from the parties paying Licence tax under the pretence of drawing and petitions for them. But Mr Lane on consideration of the applicants long services and the narracircumstances of himself and his family directed him to obtain a certificate of incapacity for further services with the view of recommending him for pension and this he had only did on the 27th August last.

I beg therefore to enclose Mr Irelands application for pension together with the Medical certificate and to state that the delay in forwarding the application had been due to the difficulty experienced in verifying the early part of the applicants services. I may add that Mr Lane had recorded that Mr Irelands application for pension should date from the date of the recommen = ation for dismissal which is 1st February 1869.

To

E. G. R. Fane Esqre
Collector of Madras.

Sir,

I beg most respectfully to bring to your notice that I have been suspended by the Collector of Licenses Tax since the 1st instant pending your decisions under the following circumstances

One Aggeyood Dowlah Bahadoor, a respectable Mahomedan Gentleman and a resident of St. Thomé was assessed as money lender under Class VII of Act IX of 1868 / Rupees 32 / which he objected to but was directed to pay the same and then Appeal accordingly to the form of the petition attached to the said Act.

The said Aggeyood Dowlah paid the amount and obtained a Certificate from the Collector, and being ignorant of the forms of Appeal he had to make application to me as a personal friend for a draft of the same which I gave him as I did not for a moment consider that I was infringing the rules of the Office.

On

On the 21st January 1869 was the hearing of Ayeegood Dowlah's Petition when I brought forward the names of the parties to whom he had lent money thereupon the case was adjourned to the 28th idem for the purpose of subpoenaing the above mentioned parties.

Upon the further hearing of the case on the 28th the Collector was perfectly satisfied from the evidence given on the occasion that Ayeegood Dowlah was a money lender - and on this date he was represented by a Vakeel who produced my draft in the anticipation I presume of being exempted from the Tax.

In submitting the above facts to your favorable consideration I beg to state that I was solely actuated by pure motives of friendship in having given him the draft of the petition attached to the said Act; but as a different opinion has been formed of my action in this case by the Collector of Income Tax I beg respectfully to solicit that you will be good enough to permit me to forward my applic-cation for pension accompanied by a Medical Certificate for the long long and faithful service of upwards of 23 years rendered by me in the Madras Collectorate, as you have been pleased to order merto do so on a former occasion for which act of Christian benevolence I shall ever remember with gratitude. -

I beg to remain

2. Mr Jane applied to the Deputy Director's proposal and directed Mr Ireland to apply for pension with medical certificate; but he failed to obtain one. His place was filled up.

3. He was re-employed in the 6th Nov 1866 till the 31st January 1869 as an Inspector in the Revenue. The Office before the 1st Feb. but Mr Wade was not examined his dismissal for neglecting to pay the Queen's Income paying paying license tax under pretence of drawing out petitions for them. Mr Jane, however, in consideration of Mr Ireland's former services and of his present circumstances, ordered that he should be recommended for pension to date from 1st February 1869, on his producing a medical certificate. He he failed to do until the 27th August 1869, nearly seven months after his relief from duty.

5. The Government concur with the Examiner of Claims - The circumstances under which he Ireland was removed from Office in 1866 clearly amount to dismissal - His embarrassments, besides unfitting him for the post of distraining officer, caused him to neglect his duty and finally brought about his arrest and consequent absence without leave. His case under, as above described, appears to have been clearly one of dismissal, which was to have been held in abeyance should he obtain & produce a medical Certificate. This he failed to do, and the order of dismissal therefore stands good.

6. The Government consider that the applicant deserves the less consideration in that he profited so little by the leave which he had asked, that, within three months of his re-employment, his dismissal again became necessary.
