Gratuity.

Read letter from the Inspector-General of Police, dated 7th March 1870, No. 1403.

ORDER THEREON, 27th April 1870, No. 175.

Under Section 1 of the Police Service and Superannuation Fund Rules, His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Sillar Naick, late Constable in the Kurnool Police, a gratuity of Rupees 63, to which he is entitled on account of his service, amounting to nine years, six months, and four days.

2. Fakurudin, the other Constable on whose behalf application is made, is certified to be unfit for further service from general debility, fever, and stricture of the urethra; and the Medical Officer declares that the latter, contracted, the applicant says, before he entered the Police, must be the result of irregular habits. The Deputy Inspector-General conjectures that the general debility in a man like the applicant, aged only 37½ years, must also be due to irregular habits and recommends that half gratuity, viz., Rupees (30) thirty (twenty-seven?), be granted.

3. The Government observe that the disease, which is declared to have resulted from irregular habits, is only one of the incapacitating causes, and that either of the other two may suffice to render the Constable unfit for service. The maximum gratuity is Rupees 54, and the Government are of opinion that a gratuity of Rupees 45 will meet the justice of the case. His Excellency in Council is pleased, under Section 1 of the Superannuation Pension Rules, to sanction a gratuity of this amount.

I Charles Abdy Andrew Esq
Surgeon of Nurnool, do hereby Certify that 2nd Class Constable No. 388. F. A. M. D. C. has been under Medical treatment at Gurnthum for a period of two months and also under treatment
- ment for a week for General Debility, Fever and permanent Structure of throat and that he is not likely to derive permanent benefit from further treatment or from change of air. He is in my opinion unfit for further service and to the best of my judgement such disqualification is not the result of intem- perance, but the Structure must be the result of irregular habits it was contracted (he states) previous to his admission into the Police Force.
