ORDER THEREON, 4th May 1870, No. 197.

Satulur Mahommed Kasim, after having served as a Revenue Peon in the Kistna District for twenty-nine years, six months, and twelve days, was thrown out of employ on the reduction of establishments; but was enlisted in the new Police and served in it for five years, three months, and thirteen days. His whole service for gratuity amounts to thirty-four years, nine months, and twenty-five days.

2. He was discharged on the 1st November 1867 as unfit for service, and it would appear that a medical certificate was then obtained and was sent with the other papers to the Collector's office, but was not forthcoming when a list of the applicant's revenue service was furnished by the Collector in September 1869, nor can a copy be obtained. A fresh medical certificate, dated 1st March 1870, is now, in compliance with G. O., 10th January 1870, No. 11, submitted in support of the application. It sets forth that the applicant is sixty years of age.

3. His Excellency the Governor in Council resolves to grant to Satulur Mahommed Kasim a gratuity of six months' pay, or Rupees (36) thirty-six, under the old rules, subject to the confirmation of the Government of India, for which application will be made.
