Adverting to para two of the letter under report I have to point out for your information the circumstances under which these Rolls were delayed.

I received them on the 11th November 1869 from Chief Office and sent them to the Deputy Assistant Commissary General's Office on the 16th with Copies of letters received from you for necessary corrections and the Statement of the old Service of Constables. These Rolls were returned here on the 29th November and were sent back for further information on the 17-12-69 and were returned on the 21st December 1869 from the Deputy Assistant Commissary General's Office. Owing to the vacation for Christmas holidays these Rolls were not sent to Chief Office until 10th January 1870. hence you will be pleased to observe that

that there has been but little delay here

As for para 3 of your letter I have already given my explanation to the effect that the Rolls in question have been delayed in the Deputy Collector's Office for affording the necessary informations. They were sent him on the 16th November 1869 and were returned on the 10th December 1869 and retransmitted to Chief Office on the 16th December.
