is directed to require the Acting Army Master to be good enough to state whether the "Apprentices" in the Certificate List whenever were artificers; if they were that they were apprenticed to what other occupation besides in the latter event, their claims for gratifying pensions ~~in the~~ must be disposed of with reference to the list recently drawn up, & it will be necessary to refer back the applicants received on behalf of apprentices for information as to the particular occupation each was put to. Possibly this information may not be on record and the necessity of actually asking is suggested W.C.

Fort St George

Sir,

In reply to your Official Memorandum N^o 69 of 9th instant Pension Department I have the honor to state that Apprentices having no recognised position as Artificers on the establishment of the late Mint they can lay no claim to reckon their period of service as such.

2. Some of the Apprentices who had served for a long period in that position were on the closing of the Mint recommended for gratuity, irrespective of the nature of their duties, no Apprentice being considered eligible for pension.

I have the honor to be,

Sir
