Translation of a Statement made by late Constable Nott Soobbah Naick on the 26th January 1870

In the year 1860, I was employed not as Jail Peon, but as Peon in Court, which I left, not in order to get employed in the Police Force, but on account of my illness. After wards my post in Court, was conferred on my younger brother Chinnoyen

In consequence of my illness, I remained unemployed till November 1862 when I was enlisted in the Madura District.

I left the Court in 1860 but I do not recollected the month & date

It was before my entering the Court I had served as Jail Peon, but I do not remember the dates & of my employment in the Jail & of leaving it.

1 In reply to your Memo No 748 of 5th Instant I have the honor to refer you to my letter No 781 of 8th November 1869 and to the statements marginally noted which accompanied it. I now forward translations of statements of 2 other persons who are well acquainted with the services of Constable Soobba Naidoo and who fully corroborate his assertion as to his having been employed as a Peon in the Sub Court after leaving the Jail.

2 I am unable to obtain further evidence on the point, as, owing to the abolition of the Court of Principal Sader Ameen, many of the persons who served with Constable Soobba Naidoo have left Salem.

3 — My own opinion is that the information obtained from the Record at the Central Jail and Principal Sader Ameens Court is altogether incorrect and that the statements made by Constable Soobba Naidoo may be relied on.

4. I forward copies of the statements which accompanied my letter No 781 of 8th November 1869 in case the originals should have been mislaid.

Statement made by Soobba Naidoo, lately Constable in the Police at Salem on the 8th November 1869

I have served in the Jail Department as a Peon from the year 1833 to 1850. In the beginning of the year 1851 I was taken into the Principal Sudder Ameen's Court at Salem as a Peon, where I have served till the close of the year 1859, in which I resigned my post as I was then severely suffering from illness.

In 1862 I was enlisted in the Police force at Madura whence I was transferred to Salem District in 1864.

Statement made by Dy Constable Nagiah Naidoo No 936 on the 8th November 1869

I was taken into the Jail Service in 1849 as a Peon - Constable Soobba Naidoo was then in Jail as a Peon. I do not know when he was entertained as a Jail Peon; ~~But~~ in 1850 I was transferred to Sudder Adawlut Court at Madras; he was then also in the Jail service. I know nothing of him after my transfer.

Statement made by Cons Shaik Suneer No. 4. on the 8th November 1869

I was admitted in the Salem Jail in 1844 as a Peon. Cons. Soobba Naidoo was then in the service of the same Jail. In 1850 he left the Jail service and in the early part of the year 1851 he was taken into the Sub Court as a Dalayet. In 1859 he left the Court service owing to some illness. I know nothing of him since then.

Translation of a statement made on the 8th February 1870 by Soobroya Pillay, late Duffadar in the Jail of Salem

I have known Soobbah Naik from a long time. In the year about 1832, he entered the Salem Criminal Jail as a Peon, and he held that post till about 1850 or 1851 when he was employed as Dalayet in the Sub Court. He left the Court after a service of about 7 or 8 years. I am well aware of the above circumstances as I had been in the service of the Jail for a long time both before he had entered the Jail and after he had left it.

Translation of a statement made by Goolam Hoosain late Dalayet in the Principal Sudder Ameens Court of Salem on the 8th February 1870.

I have known Soobbah Naik late Constable No. 14 from a long time. He had served, for several years, as Peon in the Salem Jail. In 1850 or 51 he was entertained as a Peon in Sub Court + on a monthly salary of Rs. 5-4-0 by Mr. Cotton the then Sub Judge. He served in Court for about 7 or 8 years when he left the Court on account of illness, and his post was conferred on his younger brother Chinnoyen. I had served in the said Court for about forty years and it is 8 or 9 months since I retired I am therefore well aware of the above circumstances though I do not remember the exact dates &c. of Soobbanaik's entering the Court and leaving it.

that he did not leave the Court until 1859 while the Certificate shews that he left on 24th October 1856; he also states that he left his different "Sunnuds" in the office of Superintt of Police Madras when he was entertained in the Police. Sir, With reference to endorsement of the under Secretary to Government dated 15th December 1869, I have the honor to resubmit the application of Constable Subba Nayudu and to forward original letters from the Superintendent of Police Salem and *Superintendent of Jail Salem with Copies of Statements made by the Constable and others who served with him. This latter differs from the Extract furnished from the records of the Salem Jail. The Superintendent of Police, it will be observed (enclosure I) credits the Statement of the Constable

2. The Superintendent of the Jail stated that the cause of Subba Nayudu's leaving the Jail in 1860 was his taking Service in the Police and that no further information is obtainable from the Jail records regarding the Constable. From the Constable's State=ment it appears that his Service in the Jail was prior to his joining the establishment of the Sudder Ameen's Court and that subsequently to his resignation (owing to severe illness) of his post in the Court he was out of employ till he enlisted in the Madura Police in 1862.

3. As the Constable acknowledges the break in his service in 1869-62, and as his Service in the Police does not amount to 7 years, he does not appear to be entitled to any gratuity, either under the old rules or under the rules

rules of the Superannuation Fund.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obedt Servt,
