PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 25th May 1869.

Read the following letter from H. E. SULLIVAN, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Yettinhutty, 1st May 1869, No. 84:—

I HAVE the honor to report on Board Petition No. 9 of 1869.

2. The petitioner was declared by the late Sub-Collector to be unfit for his post as Revenue Inspector, but as he had served his time, Mr. Foster would not remove him, but told him to apply for pension. Petitioner sent in his resignation of office on the 15th August 1868, but begged to be allowed to hold on until his pension had been sanctioned. The Sub-Collector refused to allow this, and directed him to appear before the Tahsildar, in view to the usual form of application being filled up. As he neglected to comply with this order, he was told that if he did not appear on or before the 9th October, he would be removed from the service, and as he did not appear, he was removed on the 14th idem.

3. Petitioner admits a service extending over thirty-nine years, which is, I think, quite sufficient to justify the Sub-Collector's instructions to him to retire. His present predicament is entirely due to his own obstinate determination to hold on even after he had tendered his resignation, and I therefore, declined to interfere when he appealed to me. The only indulgence which might be shown to him, is the permission to retire at once on the pension of his rank.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Petition.

THE Board consider that more indulgence might have been shown to the petitioner, considering his long service,

2. He will now be reinstated, but will be required to send in his application immediately.
3. The petitioner will be referred to the Collector.
