"2. The collector of Madras explains in his letter dated 7th August last No 1242 that it is usual with servants of the Government to wait for some time before applying for gratuity or pension within a view to secure the service of Government and it is only as a last resource that applications are made for gratuity or pension as the case may be."

"3. This explanation satisfactorily accounts for the delay which has taken place in the submission of the Register."

After the receipt of the Petitioner's application, a careful examination of former records in the different Saluts in which he had served was required to verify the Petitioner's account of his services and this has been productive of some delay in reporting on the case.
