 the records of this Office, commenced in January 1854, under the Superintendence of Most probably Shalik Ammer did not belong to the Regular Establishment, He might have been entertained in the temporary staff & paid from the amount of the estimate for the work which was the practice in paying temporary establishments entertained for a particular work, but there is nothing in the record to throw light on this matter, as the records connected with the Inamut Department, have been destroyed in 1863, & sold to paper manufacturers. Under these circumstances the Service list of attachant / furnish the following information as therein required.

1st

The promotion of the Constable is shown in the Monthly Return for September 1864.

2nd

Shiekooomer was dismissed for giving tobacco to a prisoner in the jail. 8 other Constables of the jail who were at the same time guilty of allowing a prisoner while out at work with a gang of convicts to get betel nut having been punished partly by reduction and partly by fine only, it was afterwards thought that the punishment inflicted on Constable Shiekooomer was severe and that the punishment of reduction would suffice. He was accordingly re-enlisted as 2nd Class Constable.

re-enlistment should be traced in the records of the office.

Convent to get his name free when sent at work, and in May 1855 he was dis-missed, a convict in his charge having obtained bail. He was however re-entrusted after one month as a second class constable, the Superintendent thinking that his punish-ment which was heavier than that inflicted on similar offenders, was too severe, and that re-
-direction would suffice.

2. Under these circum-stances the Govt are of opinion that Shekh Po-
-war's dismissal not being final, he has not forfeited his previous service, but it being evi-dent that he was ~~an untrustworthy~~ and ill conducted officer, His Excellency

Excellency in Council cannot think him entitled to a larger gratuity than Rs 25 which is sanctioned in lieu of that of Rs 50, recommended.

3. Gratuities according to the annexed list are granted to the other con-stables on whose behalf applications have been submitted. The papers show that the service of some of them is not unblemished, as they underwent degradation for various faults. In such cases the gratuities have been reduced as specified in the last column.

4. It is observed that, except Shekh Po-
-war, all the applicants were

Service for periods ranging from three to eight days after they were declared unfit for further duty.
 Explanation on this point should have been given.
