Constation of an affidavit of Choogam Seemay

While I was Alkary peon in the Commisariat Department my service was dispened with at the end of June 1860 in consequence of the Military Alkary Tarn having been leased out to the renter to whom all the peons attached to the Tarn were made over with the Gork badges. The renter therefore used to pay my wages from his pocket. I was not discharged from the Gork service on any fault whatever. I declare that this statement is true I have heard this and it is correct.
