Affidavit of Kappachetty Narsiah No 703 late Constable attached to Vizagapatnam Town Station.

I was, during the administration of Mr John Smith, first entertained in the Sibbundi Corps. The said Sibbundi Corps was then stationed at Vizagapatnam under the Control of the Collector. I do not remember the date, but fifteen years after this I was appointed a Police Peon in the Tana of Alamanda. From that place I was transferred and for some time at Karasa Gulli and for some time at Kanda Gulli and then I was again sent to Alamanda Tana about nine years since I was transferred to the Police Corps. I think it is now about three months since I was discharged from the Police Corps and was granted a Certificate.

Sir,

Referring to G. O. N^o 186 of the 29th April, I have the honor to inform you that I have been unable to trace the services of Koppuchetti Narasayer from the records of this Office or of the Taluk in which he says he had done so.

2 He might have served under the late Heads of Police, but his name is not in the lists prepared in this Office when the Deputies in the Collector's office and in the Police establishment were sent to be enrolled in the new Police, or in the pay abstracts anterior to the introduction of the new Police. From this I conclude that he was not on the old Police Establishment at the time he got into the new Police.

3 An affidavit was taken as directed in G. O. N^o 87 of the 28th February 1870 1870, from the party and submitted to Government through the Inspector General of Police.

Application is made for a gratuity to Police Constable Koppichetty Narasayya whose service as such amounts to ^{y.} 8 - ^{m.} 3 - ^{d.} 16. Among the papers submitted with the application was a Telugu statement (not an affidavit) subscribed by the applicant, in which it was stated that he served in the old police 20 years, and previously 15 years in a sibbundi corps in which he was enrolled by Mr. J. Smith, the Collector. If the statement were true, the applicant would be entitled to compassionate allowance of Rs 3, and the Collector was therefore directed to endeavour to trace the

the alleged services and to specify the nature of the Sibbundi, and in default of evidence from records, to take an affidavit.

2. In reply, Mr. Melville furnished information regarding Sibbundi temporarily entertained in 1847, but neglected to report regarding the service in the old Police.
It was then pointed out that the 1847 Sibbundi was obviously not that referred to by the applicant inasmuch as Mr. Smith who enrolled him died in 1824 and the alleged service in the Sibbundi amounted to 15 years.

Mr. Melville was then ordered to make more thorough enquiry -

He now reports that the applicant's name is not found in any of the old police pay pay abstracts, nor in the lists of persons transferred (as the applicant states he was) from the old to the new Police. Mr. Melville says that the applicant may have served under the late heads of Police; but the meaning of this is not clear. No allusion is made in the Acting Collector's second report to the Sibbundi Service regarding which he was told to enquire, but an affidavit to the same effect as the statement referred to in para 1, supra is now submitted by the Inspector General of Police.

It is therefore to be presumed that there is no ^{other} evidence on the subject forthcoming.
4. The way in which the case has been reported on is unsatisfactory but - but it seems that no evidence as to the early service can be had from the records.

The affidavit which is the only evidence, is, I submit, worthless.

Such statements made by natives are invariably hazy as to time, and are seldom found to accord with independent evidence when it is procureable. In the present case, even accepting the periods stated the applicant must have been entertained in 1826, but Mr Smith died two years earlier.

Again, the age of the applicant appears from the register to be 55 years, and if his statements are to be believed he must have been first entertained at

I would however advise the in-sufficient way in which Enquiry has been made
L.O.S.

9 years of age. A man would scarcely be made a Subfundipen at less than 20 years of age; and on this assumption the applicant would have been 53-(or 57) years old in 1861.

Had he been so he would surely not have been accepted as a Constable.

5. Under these circumstances I submit that there is no use in again remanding the claim for enquiry, and have prepared the accompanying draft - J.S. M

PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read again Proceedings of Government dated 28th February 1870 No 87.
Read the following ^{also} papers.

From The Officiating Collector of Vizagapalam } (His letter dated 4th June 1870 No 403)

Order thereon Colacament 3 Augst 70 No 341.

The Government do not consider the evidence which is forthcoming sufficient to establish the applicant's alleged service in the Sibbundi and old police, and will not longer defer passing orders on the claim, on the basis of his service in the new Police.

2. His Excellency the Governor in Council is therefore pleased to grant to Hoppuchetti Narasaya a gratuity of Rupees ^{forty eight} 48 being the amount to which he is entitled under ^{the} Superannuation Rules for his service of 8-3-16 in the new new Police.

3. The collector has not adverted in his report above recorded to the alleged Sibbundi service.

He should have stated whether or not it appeared from his records that a Sibbundi force was raised about the time, and existed from the period, stated by the applicant; and whether there is or is not anything to show that he belonged to such a force. He will now inquire on these points, and should the applicant's statement be found substantially correct, report the fact.

The manner in which enquiry has been made does not appear to have been satisfactory.
