Chief Secretary to Government Coatamund.

Sir,
With reference to Government Order of the 2^d instant No 269 I have the honor to report that no information is obtainable as to the precise nature of the offence for which (Deputy Constable Monikum was reduced to the grade of Constable.

2. From the enclosed Memorandum dated 8th July 1870 No 481, from the Superintendent of Police North Arcot it will be seen that the District records merely show that the Deputy Constable was reduced for great irregularities committed

Enclosure one Reports that no information is obtainable as to the precise nature of the offence for which Deputy Constable Mani-kam was reduced to the rank of Constable and sent to a prison from the post of Police at that street on the subject - D. 18269 in 1862, for great irregularity the nature of which cannot it appears be now ascertained.

After two months and sixteen days service as a first class Constable he was re-appointed a deputy, and it is therefore to be presumed that the irregularities of which he was guilty were not of a very serious character. The Government are of opinion that it will be sufficient to reduce the gratuity payable to him by Rs 5; and the payment of Rs 100 is accordingly sanctioned.
