Under the Civil Pension and Gratuity Rules of 4th July 1862, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council grants authority for the payment to the twelve servants named in the margin who were thrown out of employ in consequence of the reduction of Establishments in the Nellore District, of the gratuities specified opposite their names amounting in the aggregate

to Rs 404 four hundred & four.

2. The Government pass the service of Prow Dadi Subbaya No 6 but are of opinion that the repeated breaks, two having been caused by suspension and one by protracted absence without leave show that he was not a well conducted servant. His Excellency in Council is pleased therefore to grant him gratuity of Rs 18 only, Rs 6 being deducted from the maximum Amount.

3. Prishkar Budamagunta Vencatakristnama No 7 having been once suspended for dishonesty and three times degraded during the period of his service, a gratuity of Rs 50 has been sanctioned in lieu of Rs 60 proposed.

4. It is observed that Vettian Shaik Ummurs service is not sufficient to entitle

hi

him to Compassionate allowance even if as a Vettian he could be admitted to it. If he is to be granted a gratuity it is necessary that a Medical certificate should furnished together with a Statement of his age and of the circumstances under which he was removed from the effective list.

5. The Government are not of opinion that the duties of Beekam Sing No 10 as Akbarnavis are such as to entitle him, either to a pension or gratuity under the new rules. A gratuity of six months pay or Rs 72 is passed to him under the old Rules.

6. The Government regret to be again constrained to animadvert on the great delay which has been allowed to take place in Nellore in sending up applications for retiring allowances. His observed that of the 13 individuals whose claims are now submitted four applied for gratuity as far back as 1865 and several in 1866 & 1867, yet the register bears date 11th November 1869. The explanation given is that usually advanced for these excessive delays, that time was required ~~to~~ for the examination of the accounts of a great number of years. The Ag. Collector will report whether any claims not disposed of are still lying over in his Office.
