Madras 4th January 1870

To

H. E. Stokes Esq.

Supervisor Government Press

Respected Sir

I beg to inform your honor that I was entertained in January 1857 as Sheriff and assistant Cash Keeper in the General Treasury and on its abolition in April 1862 I was transferred in the same capacity to the Madras Bank with a gratuity of Rs. 84 for the service I had rendered in the General Treasury I was removed in October 1863 relative to the Government service by the late Supervisor M. W. H. Kerr as a Cash Keeper in the Government Press and since then I have been discharging the duties entrusted to me with all care to the satisfaction of your honor. As I had not been aware of the fact that I should refund the Gratuity I received on my re-entertainment in the Govt. service till I saw the Government Notification published in the Fort St. George Gazette dated 28th October 1869 page 385. I had no opportunity for refunding it then only I beg therefore most respectfully that you will kindly favor me with permission from the Government to refund now the gratuity I received by instalment at 10 Rs. per annum so as to secure the benefit of reckoning my former service towards pension

For which act of kindness

I

I shall ever feel grateful to you for the kindness of your letter. I am yours truly
