Moonesawmy has lived with me as Peon for thirteen years, & is the most honest industrious & faithful servant I have seen.
Nothing but my departure for Europe would have caused me to part with him.

having the highest opinion of his conduct and character I induced him to leave the served for two years, while I was in charge of the establishment, and is still serving.

He asks me for a written character testifying to his good conduct, and I am glad to give it him.
