Sir,

In continuation of my letter No. 894 of the 15th ultimo, I have the honor to state that A. Subramania Shastri served as Head Master of Anakapulli Taluq school from 22nd October 1856 to October 1858 when he was transferred to Ellur school. I am unable to say how long he remained at Ellur.

2. There is evidence to shew that Subramania did not serve as Head Master of the A. V. school at Adoni in February and March 1861.

3. From the preceding, and from the remark in para 2 of my

my letter of the 15th ultimo, it is evident that Subramania Shastri has now no service in the Educational Department to his credit.

Sir,

Being unable to furnish from the records of my office the information required by you, I have made a reference to the Inspectors of schools in whose Divisions A. Subramania Sastri states that he served. On hearing from the Inspectors, I shall do myself the honor of communicating with you.

2. I have to observe that attendance as a student at at a Normal School is not service. Consequently taking the statement which accompanied your letter to be correct, there was a break in the service of Subramanea Sastri from 16th April 1859 to 17th February 1861, which has the effect of nullifying all his previous service.

Memorandum

The undersigned has the honor to subjoin replies to the following Nos called for in Memo dated 24th August 1869 from Pension Report Department

No. 27 Copy of the first medical certificate dated 28th January 1869 is forwarded but as Government in their order dated 30th April 1869 No. 731 considered it defective, as not giving particulars marked b & d in paragraph 3 of the Instructions to Medical Officer, an amended certificate dated 9th June 1869 was accordingly obtained and attached to the Register.

No. 28 A true copy of the order of Government dated 30th June 1869 No. 1078 is transmitted

No. 32 Insertion in item No. 6 in the 1st Side of the Register of the cause of break in service has been accordingly attended to

No. 39 The Register having been despatched prior prior to the receipt of the letter from the Director of Public Instruction, the information was not shewn therein and the service was entered on the statement of the applicant to the effect that he proceeded to Adoni on being appointed Head Master of Anglo Vernacular School there, but having fallen sick on arrival he returned to Madras without entering upon his duty, and reported the fact to the Director. The service of 1 Month & 1 day has however now been struck out.

No 40 A break in the service which commenced prior to 1st January 1859 having been caused by the applicant entering the Normal School as Stipendiary Student on the 16th April 1859, the whole of the service up to that date ~~[illegible]~~ became forfeited and the undersigned, after deducting 3 years, 11 months & 2 days as shewn in items Nos 7 & 8, deducted the remainder 6 months & 26 days on the ground of the service not being continuous the words "from 1st January 1859" having been added by a mistake, ~~but~~ As the entries appear to be incorrect they have now been amended as per instructions.

No 41 Alterations recommended to be made at foot of the 2nd side of the Register has been attended to, but applicant being 32 years of age on the 28th January 1869 calculation shews that he must have been 19 years 8 months and 22 days old when he first entered service ~~on the~~ 22nd October 1856, and not 18-8-22 as inserted.

THE Under Secretary to Government, Public, &c., Departments is directed to request the Director of Public Instruction to state whether the circumstances under which Subramaniya Sastri ~~the [illegible] regarding the~~ was removed from his post as Head master of the Ellore Taluk School, & entered the Govt. normal School, were such as to entitle him to the benefit of G. SIR, Referring to Memorandum in the Pension Department, No. 66, of the 8th instant, from Mr. Under Secretary Stokes, I have the honor to state that Subramaniya Sastri is in no way entitled to be brought under the operation of Government Order, No. 217, of the 18th June last.

2. Subramaniya applied for admission into the Madras Normal School without being compelled to undergo a previous examination. This request was negatived; and he was subsequently admitted on passing an examination at Ellore. After staying about two years in the Normal School, instead of serving as a School-master for a reasonable period, Subramaniya left the Educational Department. As I stated in my letter to Captain Cunliffe, dated the 13th May last, there is evidence to show that Subramaniya never acted as a Master at Adoni.

Report of the Examiner of Claims - 20th Oct. - 1211.
Letter from the Director of Pub. Instn. - 16th Dec. - 2877

Order thereon 27th January 1870, No 39

Subramanya Sastri late Inspector of Police in the Madras District, served y. m. d. 2 - 5 - 25 as a Government School master up to 15th April 1859 when he entered the Normal School. He spent in it y. m. d. 1 - 10 - 2, and subsequently served y. m. d. 7. 5. 9. as an Inspector of Police, but deducting the period during which he was under suspension (though permitted to draw pay) the net period is y. m. d. 7 - 1 - 16 -

The

2. The Examiner of Claims has included the whole of the applicant's service in the Educational Department and the time passed in the Normal School under G. O. 18th June 1869, No. 217 Educational; and reports him entitled to a gratuity of 9 months' pay, or Rs 360 under the new rules.

3. The Government observe that, besides the fact that the Order cited by the Examiner of Claims cannot have retrospective effect so as to apply to a case which occurred in 1859, it appears from the letter of the Director of Public Instruction, that the circumstances of Subrammunya Sastri's case are not such as would now bring it within the scope of that order. The service must therefore be excluded and there remains only the period $\overset{y.}{7}$ - $\overset{m.}{5}$ - $\overset{d.}{9}$ passed in the Police, and entitling the applicant to a gratuity of seven months' pay, or Rs 280.

4. Subrammunya Sastri was, however, suspended and degraded on two separate occasions for misconduct and inefficiency, and His Excellency in Council is therefore not prepared to sanction the payment to him of a higher gratuity than Rs 200.
