Veneataramanarazu was made Hungami Peon vice Junis Khan, who was degraded to the post of Revenue Peon, which had been held by the former. It appears to me that Venkataramanarazu was promoted to the post of Hungami Peon under the impression that it was of a permanent nature, and that this view is correct, is, I think, borne out by his retaining this employment until, under the revision of Establishments, he was made a Peon.

2. From the enquiries which I have personally personally made, I believe that the "Hangami" establishment was always looked upon in the light of a permanancy and that consequently Venkataramana razu did not retain a lien upon his former post. There is nothing on record as to whether he did or not.

Report of the Examiner of Claims

His services of the within mentioned individual having been verified from the records of the Collector's Office, he will be eligible to a gratuity of Rupees 18-0-0 equal to three months Salary under the old rules for his services of years 8-10-18, should Government be pleased to accept the explanation of the Collector given in paras 2 and 3 of his letter No. 32 dated 7th December last, accompanying, with reference to the delay in the production of Medical Certificate and in the submission of application.

His services prior to 1st August 1860 have been excluded from calculation as he served as Hungamy (or temporary) peon on two occasions the last of which was from October 1858 to July 1860 subsequent to his resignation on the 27th June 1857.

Memorandum

Venkatramanna Raja was employed as peon and duffadar for 20-7-26 y. m. d. - He was then degraded for overstaying leave, and rather than take up the inferior post he resigned and thereby lost his previous service. He was unemployed for 6-1-19 y. m. d. after which he was taken on as a Hungami (temporary) peon on Rs 3-8-0. After 10-10 y. m. d. he was made permanent peon on the same pay, and continued to serve in that capacity for 3-2-9 y. m. d. He was then appointed Hungami peon on Rs 4-8-0, and served as such for 1-9-2 y. m. d. after which he was a permanent peon on Rs 6 for 8-10-18 y. m. d. - His whole service amounts to 32-6-0 y. m. d. He has now applied for Gratuity.

2. The Examiner of Claims rejects all his service prior to the period last mentioned, and reports him entitled to a gratuity of 3 months' pay or Rs 18-

3. The rejection of the 20 years 7 months and 26 days Service, prior to resignation, and of the first period of Hungami Service, seems unavoidable. But the question is whether he can count the second period of Hungami service and the short period of permanent-Service which preceded it. If he can he will have 15-11-19 y. m. d. service and can claim four months' pay. The question turns upon the nature of his hungami Service, and whether the period of permanent-service preceding the second hungami period does not entitle him to reckon both.

4. Hungami peons were constantly employed before the revision of establishments, and the Acting Sub Collector writes, regarding the present case, that the word was frequently applied to Police and extra peons. He says, that the applicant was appointed Hungami peon in the room of another degraded for misconduct, and that his appointment was looked upon as promotion. Mr Price says, further, that from enquiries which he has personally made he believes that the Hungami establishment was always looked upon in the light of a pensionary, and that consequently the applicant did not retain a lien on his former post; but that there is nothing on record
