Your most obedient servant.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Proceedings of Government in the Public Department No. 420 dated 9th April 1870, and to report that in obedience thereto, I have dispensed with the services of Mr. F. C. D' Rozario (Examiner of correspondence and Record-Keeper) and of one peon from the 22nd current, the day following the receipt of G. O.

I have now to solicit the orders of Government on the question of the amount of gratuity payable to Mr. D' Rozario.
Mr. D' Rozario first entered the service of Government on 1st August 1860, and has served continuously up to date; he therefore reckons a service of nine years eight months and twenty one days, of which period 3 months were enjoyed by him as leave on private affairs.

affairs.

3. The salary attached to his last appointment was Rupees 50, and he is, according to the Rules in force (Vide Uncovenanted servants' Vade Mecum page 142 para 764) entitled to nine months' pay as a gratuity for his past service. But Mr D' Rozario brings to my notice the circumstance of his former appointment of Head Clerk having been abolished in 1869, and adduces reasons in support of his claim to gratuity calculated upon the salary he then drew which seem to merit special attentions and I therefore beg to submit his case for the favorable consideration of Government.

* Vide Pro: of Govt:
Public Dept. No.
796 of 12th June
1869.

4. Mr. D' Rozario's salary from 1st January 1865 up to 4th June 1869 as Head Clerk of the General Department of this office was Rs. 100 per mensem; but owing to a representation of the late Sanitary Commissioner as to the pressing necessity of a re-arrangement of the office establishment, with a view to provide for the entertainment of two additional clerks without involving extra expense to Government his appointment was abolished and the salary distributed equally between the created appointments of Examiner of Correspondence and Record Keeper and First class Statistical clerk.

5. The former of these appointments having been offered to him at the time he accepted as a temporary measure, in the hope of being able to secure a better one at no distant date, but as no opportunity offered itself immediately after, and as meanwhile Dr. Ranking intended to restore his former salary to him, by the arrangement proposed in his letter of the 16th July 1869 No. 2637 consequent upon the abolition of the appointment of Secretary to the Sanitary Commissioner he continued to remain in the office on the salary of Rs. 50 per mensem. On the receipt of the Resolution of the Government of India declining to sanction the proposed restoration of his former salary and directing a reduction in the office establishment, Mr. Rozario has been thrown out of employment altogether.

* Vide Pro: of Government
Public Dept.
No. 1084 dated
3rd. August
1869.

6. Had Mr. Rozario preferred his claims to gratuity in June last, when he first suffered by a re-arrangement of the office establishment establishment the amount would have been reckoned on his salary of Rs. 100; and even now if he had but sufficient service for retiring pension, his former salary would weigh ^{so} materially in his favour as the rate of pension would depend on the average amount of pay drawn by him during the last 5 years of his service. But the misfortunes which have occurred to him in such quick succession are due entirely to measures that have been carried out in the interests of Government, and these measures will not, I trust, militate against, but rather strengthen his claims to gratuity calculated upon his late salary of Rs. 100 per mensem.

7. I take this opportunity of soliciting also that ^{should} any special benefits or privileges apparently contemplated by the Government of India be accorded to individuals, similarly dealt with as Mr. D'Rosario, his claims to consideration may not be overlooked; and further that the orders of Government on this latter may, if not objectionable, be communicated to the Heads of Departments in the Presidency with a view to Mr. D'Rosario's re-employment in Government employ on the

on the occurrence of a suitable vacancy.

I have the honor to be

Yours,

Your most obedient servant.
