Proceedings of Government, Pension Department, dated 21st April 1870, No. 159.

Read also the following paper—

From W. E. JELlicoe, Esq., late Deputy Collector, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Bangalore, 9th August 1870.

With reference to Chapter XX, paragraphs 24—28 of the Civil Auditor's Manual for the Madras Presidency, published in the year 1857, I have the honor to request that you will have the goodness to bring to the favorable consideration of His Excellency the Governor in Council my application that my present pension of Rs. 200 per mensem may be commuted for a present consolidated payment in accordance with the rules therein prescribed.

2. Circumstances render my early return to Europe on family grounds absolutely necessary; and I am consequently obliged to solicit this indulgence of the Government.

ORDER THEREON, 27th August 1870, No. 423.

The commutation of life pensions of larger amount than 20 rupees per annum was prohibited by the Government of India in the orders noted in the margin.

30th January 1857, No. 583.
11th April 1857, No. 1530, Financial Department.

2. Mr. Jellicoe's application is therefore inadmissible, as his pension exceeds the amount named.
