No. 1. Read the following Extract from the Proceedings of the Government of India in the Financial Department, dated Simla, 31st May 1870, No. 842:—
Read—

Endorsement of the Home Department, No. 232, dated 9th May 1870, on an inquiry from the Venerable the Archdeacon of Calcutta whether Church servants are under the rules eligible for pension.

Ordered that the Home Department be informed that Church servants are not eligible for pensions and gratuities under the rules by reason of their entire pay not being disbursed from the revenues of the State, and also of their not being required to devote their whole time to the duties of their offices; but that a special case might be submitted to Government if there were sufficiently strong grounds.
