No. 737.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 2nd February 1870.

Read the following letters:—

From G. BANBURY, Esq., Collector of Trichinopoly, to the Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 28th September 1869, No. 233.

I HAVE the honour to forward the following case for the favourable consideration of the Board of Revenue.

2. On the 10th of this month Narrain Row, the present applicant for gratuity, appeared amongst the petitioners, and represented that no order had been passed upon his solicitation for pension or gratuity made as far back as April 8, 1863. I asked Mr. Wright to look into the matter, and I beg to annex extract from his reply which shows very clearly how matters really stand.

"2. It is true that he (Narrain Row) did apply for pension or gratuity as far back as 1863, but it was not till 1867 that any steps were taken in this office, and for what reason I cannot ascertain.

"3. I have gathered the following particulars from the records and authenticated copies of papers in petitioner's possession. That in 1860, on the reduction of establishments, he was a Goomastah on 14 Rupees a month in the Arrealoor Talook, and was made a Duffurbund in Parambalur on 7 rupees. From this Office he was removed from the 25th April 1863 by the Deputy Collector on General Duties (Soondarum Pillay) for being absent ten days beyond the leave granted to him, and for general unfitness. But it appears from an authenticated copy of a petition that on the 8th of April of the same year, or seven days before his leave expired, he applied for an extension of leave, or in default for permission to retire on a pension or gratuity. No notice would appear to have been taken of this application, and then came the Deputy Collector's order of removal. This man's case is a very hard one. Being then, in 1860, fifty years of age, he was reduced from an eligible grade to pension to a non-eligible one, when he required only thirteen months to serve; and thus at once was deprived of the prospect of a pension, as well as of the gratuity given to those thrown out of employment on the reduction of establishments, for his retention in the service, unless with the understanding of being restored to his former position as vacancies occurred, was a delusion.

"4. I come now to the year 1867: there is nothing on record to show what transpired during this interval, though petitioner states that from the first to the present time he has presented some forty petitions.

"5. On the 27th of June 1867, petitioner produced a Medical Certificate from the Garrison Surgeon, Dr. Ranking, and his case was taken in hand, registers for superannuation pension or gratuity prepared, as well as the draft of a letter to Government. These and other papers I enclose exactly as I received them from this Office, after the petition under reply had been received.

"6. Why the letter was never fair copied and forwarded I cannot discover.

"7. I enclose a Register for gratuity which I consider petitioner entitled to, and which has been calculated under the new Rules, on account of the superior advantages with reference to the Order of the Government of India, dated 30th December 1865, No. 3,693, Financial."

3. The Board will see from the above that Narrain Row has been very hardly used; not only was he reduced from an eligible to an ineligible grade for pension, but his case, as regards gratuity, has never up to this been represented to the higher authorities.

4. Concerning the delay it is most extraordinary. I never saw the man before the 10th instant; but I regret to say that in this Office the indifference with which orders and records were formerly treated by those whose special duty it was to look after them is most startling. Mr. VansAgnew has already twice mentioned this fact to the Board, and I have no wish to add more upon the subject beyond saying that I am doing what I can to keep things all shipshape for my successors.

X not so - under the old rules, 20 years were required
He had served for pension 13y 11m only.
H. K.

5. I trust the Board will be pleased to recommend that the gratuity, as shown in the accompanying Statement, may be granted to the applicant who cannot be held responsible for the great delay which has occurred.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Register of Application for Gratuity.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.—Medical Certificate.

From the same Officer, dated 21st December 1869, No. 323.

IN answer to your Memorandum, dated 18th instant, No. 1,230, I have the honour to state that I must have expressed myself badly in my letter, dated 28th September last, No. 233, as I merely meant to say that Mr. Agnew had mentioned to the Board the state of the records in his letters; not that he had mentioned anything about the long-pending gratuity case.

THE Board resolve to submit the application for a gratuity claimed by Narrain Row for the favourable consideration of Government, through the Accountant-General.

2. It appears that Narrain Row, after being reduced in consequence of a reduction of establishment in 1860, was removed from the service in 1863 in consequence of a mistake, after having been in the employment of Government for twenty-four years. He was not restored, apparently because his appeal to the Collector was overlooked; and although an application for a gratuity on his behalf was prepared in 1867, the letter was never despatched.

3. The history of the case shows either that some reason has existed, which is not known now for not recommending a gratuity, or that the delay and carelessness in the Collector's Office were of a most culpable and inexcusable nature. The Collector and Deputy Collector state that the latter explanation is the true one, and not inconsistent with the state of things under their predecessors.

4. Narrain Row cannot be said to have exhausted all means of redress, inasmuch as he never addressed the Board; but under the circumstances stated by the Collector, the Board think that the gratuity should now be granted, if possible.

5. The Board are at a loss to understand how such a case as this can have occurred. The Regulations which have been prescribed for the conduct of business ought to have made it impossible.

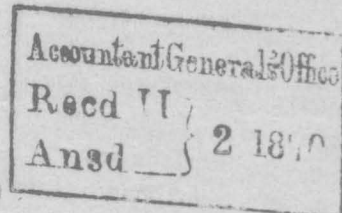

6. In his first letter Mr. Banbury refers to letters of Mr. Vans Agnew to the Board, showing such a state of the records as accounted in part for the neglect of Narrain Row's application; but the files of correspondence have been searched in vain for such a report, and Mr. Banbury has not been able to give the dates of the letters as requested.

This is to certify that I have carefully examined Karami Row of the Collectorate of Richmond, and find that he is prema-tarily aged and debilitated; also that his sight is imperfect, and that he is in my opinion permanently disqualified for further office service, and that this disqualification has not been caused as far as can be ascertained, by intemperance or other irregular habits.

I further certify that these disqualifying infirmities are not amenable to medical treatment.
