Handwritten text in Kannada script, covering the right page of the document. The text is dense and appears to be a continuation of the application or a related official communication. It includes various names, dates, and administrative details, written in a cursive style typical of the period.

The image shows a fragment of an old document, possibly a letter or a page from a book. The paper is heavily damaged, with large sections missing and the edges ragged. The handwriting is in a cursive script, likely from the 17th or 18th century. Some legible words include "Signe" and "Celle". The paper is light brown and shows signs of age and wear.
