have the honor to forward a letter * from the Superintendent of Police, South Malabar, stating that late inspector Rama Row, of South Malabar police, has been employed as a revenue inspector in Wynnad taluk.

2. I request to be informed whether, under these circumstances, Rama Row need be examined by a committee of medical officers at Cannanore.

ORDER—dated 9th September 1870, No. 459, Pension.

The Government are of opinion that Rama Row should be examined by a committee of medical officers. He has been declared by a single officer to be unfit for service, and until the question is set at rest by the report of a committee, the Government cannot permit his employment in the public service. If unfit for police service in the plains, it is to be presumed that he is not fit for the duties of a revenue inspector in such a trying climate as that of the Wynnad.
