To
The Collector
of Salem

Sir,
With reference to your docket N. 169 of the 8th February last requesting me to furnish the Jail Superintendent with a statement of the services of Shabash Khan referred to in the Superintendent's original letter (herewith returned), I have the honour to inform you that Shabash Khan was a jail peon and his pay was drawn from the Magistrates Contingent Bill. The Salem Town Magistrates Contingent Bills in which his name was entered have been destroyed in this office. The English Contingent Bills show only the number of jail years but not their names. Sabash Kahn informed me that he was as a peon in the Magistrate's jail at Darom-puray, Nongshempett and Moon-chady. The Tahildars were requested to prepare a statement of his services and furnish the same to this office. The Darom-puray Tahildar states in his report that the record shows that Sabash Kahn was entertained in the Darom-puray Jail on the 25th March 1845 on receipt of P. 5-4- and continued in the service up to 6th June 1846 and that his services were subsequently dispensed with under orders of the Magistrate -

The Tahildar of Salem states that Sabash Kahn was taken as a peon, in the Nongshempett jail on the 8th June 1846, and that this jail was then removed to Moonchady in 1850. He states that there are no records to show how long Sabash Kahn continued in the service.

The Tahildars' reports together with their enclosures are herewith forwarded for your information.

As the services of Sabash Kahn cannot be verified by the official records they may be substantiated by his solemn affirmation before a Magistrate under the gratification.

Report of the Accountant General

The services of the first two having been verified from the records of the Superintendent and those of the third, partly from Office records and partly from affidavit, they will be eligible to the amount of gratuity set opposite to their respective names in Column 11 of the register under the old rules, should Government be pleased to accept the affidavit.

It will be observed in the case of No. 3 that the entries in the affidavit do not correspond with those given in the register.
