Translation of a Letter received by the Head Assistant Collector to the Sudderdar of Likhore Salug under date the 8th April 1852 No 58
Camp. Likhore

It was complained to me by Karmasamy Rouken, peon in the above Salug that Pedda Naik the Salug Duffadar who accompanied the Salug Sheristadar when the latter went for enquiring into the case of Robbery committed in the house of Appur Karasupah Moodali, accepted some bribe from some of the prisoners arrested in that case.
The parties concerned in the complaint were caused to appear before me and examined. It does not appear from the inquiry that the charge of bribery against the Duffadar is well founded and while certain persons to whom the complainant was according to his own allegation indebted for some information respecting bribery have

Recd. 13/4/52
13th April 1852 No 473

have in their deposition denied all knowledge of the matter & the fact of their having given any information to the said Nannamasamy heikun. The Complainant who asserted that he saw the Duffadar receiving bribe of Rs. 6 from Passale Vencatachellam says that he has no other evidence to prove this fact. All these charges conspire to show that the Charge of bribery was founded & frivolous. It appears that Kondoo Row one of the peons of the said Taluq who apprehended on suspicion and detained till the evening two individuals of Shotanur of Villupuram Taluq purchased a musket from the said parties and that the said Duffadar assisted the said peon in purchasing the said musket and though it is not known that the said two persons had been arrested on suspicion of having committed robbery and it appears that the said Kondoo Row purchased the said musket musket for Rs. 4. Yet the fact that the Duffadar and the peon who are Circar servants have made the bargain with all individuals arrested on some suspicion for represents their conduct as irregular and exposes it to suspicion. The Duffadar having been punished for his neglect in the matter of a supply. As may appear from a separate Laced issued on the subject, it is not necessary to inflict on him a fresh punishment for the neglect proved against him in this case. The peon Kondoo Row is suspended for two months from this date for his misconduct alluded to above and after the expiration of the suspension period he should be employed in doing his duties. The Complaint brought by the peon Nannamasamy appears from the above circumstances to be almost unfounded; he has made contradicting statements in his depositions of the 8th March and the the 6th Instant he has moreover behaved himself very disrespectfully while giving his depositions before me. As under these circumstances to Circar business cannot be expected to be transacted without inconvenience if he should be allowed to remain in the Salang it is hereby directed that he be transferred to Shegaumli Salt Division as a peon on a Salary of Rupees 4 in the room of Mohommad Bazar who will be transferred to your Salang. A separate order has been sent to the Ameen of Shegaumli to send up Mohommad Bazar to you and you should therefore order Barriamattam Baick to go to Shegaumli with your letter and entering Mohommad Bazar's name in your Pay Abstract from this date, employ him in the performance of Circar duties.

7X
