Sir

In reply to your letters dated the 20th November last and the 11th instant I have the honor to inform you that after a thorough search amongst the records of this Court no nominal Roll of the Jail Peons has been found. All the records belonging to the Jail were forwarded to the then Superintendent when the Jail was delivered over charge to him in 1866. Nothing definitely can be gathered from the Pay Lists as in some pages the names of the Peons appear whilst in others they do not.

The nominal Roll received with your letter is herewith returned.

I have the
