Sir,

I have this day forwarded to the Accountant General an application for permission to retire from the service, from Mr. Mohib Ali, the Assistant Government Agent in this office. Mr. Mohib Ali's family have been connected with this Office since 1801. He himself has served the British Government for more than thirty years; his conduct conduct has always been most exact, received the thanks of Government.

He is now about to proceed to Hydrhas requested that Government will be pleased to grant him some expression
