FROM

The

ACCOUNTANT GENERAL.

TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

TO THE

Chief Secretary to Government

SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith the Petition of S. Sashubhettam, allydally and M. J. W. Teiquira, praying that the arrears of pensions due to the late Pensioners Nemasawamy and L. Teiquira may be disbursed to them respectively.

A similar claim has been preferred in person by one Etherajoomall the widow of Pensioner A. Vencataramayya who died on the 10th August last.

As the Claimants state that the Pensioners died intestate and that they are unable to produce probate or letters of administration owing to their being in indigent circumstances, their claims are submitted for the Orders of Government.

The

The Permanent Payable
Orders of the pensioners are herewith sent for the inspection of Government.

The Certificates originally granted to the Pensioners are also forwarded for cancellation.

I have the honor to be,

Sir
Your most obedt. Servant
