MADRAS RECORD OFFICE.

Government of Madras.

Revenue DEPARTMENT

G.O. No.	534	Press Mis.
Dated	18

Not to be folded or roughly handled

Extrait from the Office Order book, for 1869.

To Marasimmayangon
Revenue Inspector, Chidambaram.

It has been discovered that you are unable to write and have been so for a long time back. It appears that you cannot perform your work satisfactorily if you are unable to do anything but make a scratch to represent your name. You now can resign your appointment and apply for a pension if you like to do so within one month from this time: or you can name any relation who is a passed candidate for the office. But otherwise you will be dismissed after one month time from this date. Some special consideration might have been made in your favour if you had yourself reported the circumstance to this office and requested leave.

leave to retain a penman to do the writing: but this you failed to do, and have dishonestly endeavoured to conceal the fact and evade discovery, and therefore I do not think it right under such circumstances to show any special favour by retaining you in office.

The Tahsildar reported 2 years ago that you could not write quickly: but the real fact that you are unable to write at all has been carefully kept from my knowledge, so that for some months past you have been actually defrauding Government by drawing pay when you were unable to discharge the duties that you were supposed to be performing.

22nd March 1889.

To,

C. W. Reade Esq^r
Collector of South Arcot.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that the 2nd Class Revenue Inspector Kurasamma
Aiyangar of Chidambaram - Taluk was discovered at Juma - bund of Tuli 1275 to be unable to write anything as his right hand was constantly trembling.

Mr. Hathaway entered on record a large statement dismissing the man from the service, but that officer afterwards in consideration of his long service granted him one month's months privilege leave at his own request in order that he might seek the means of recovering his strength. But when he returned from the leave I found he was still very weak in his hand, and as the period of first leave was considered insufficient I allowed him 3 months leave on half pay from 19th July 1869 which was afterwards extended to another 3 months ending on the 9th January 1870. All this time he was under private treatment. He was then ordered to appear in person before me and when I personally examined him on the 19th I found no change. He could scarcely hold his pen to write a single line without a great deal of shaking.

He was then sent to the Civil Surgeon of Ludlow for his opinion as to whether he was in a position to recover recover his strength and if so, what further leave would be necessary. In reply I have received the accompanying Certificate dated 28th February 1870 from which you will see that Parasimma Aiyengar is declared to be unfit for further service from shaking palsy.

3. He is accordingly removed and under the orders of Government dated 10th December 1869 published at page 566 of District Gazette dated 22nd January 1870. He is to send his application for a gratuity with his service list from which it appears that out of his total service under Government viz. 22 years 10 months he has earned only 10-7-2 and is eligible for pension.

He has said that from 10th January to 28th February 1870 he was under examination before the Civil Surgeon before dated 3 June 1870.

me

me as explained above, but no leave was granted as I did not know what further period was necessary. Karasimma Ayengar wanted more leave. He was waiting all this time upon the Civil Surgeon. At this office, I consider him entitled to have half of his pay viz Rs 24-5-11 which amount has been carried to the credit of Govt.
I would recommend that the amount be refunded to Karasimma Ayengar under the provision of the Board's Circular Order No XXXIII of 1868. On consideration of the good testimonials herewith forwarded, I beg to recommend that he be granted a gratuity equal to 4 months pay & leave furnished in full.

Yours Very Truly

pension, but he never did so until the 3^d June 1870 when he sent in an application for a gratuity (which of 10th Instant 2:45) and appeared on the 4th or 5th Instant stating that himself and his wife were laid up with severe illness for 2 months and he was therefore unable to attend.
