Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue

Most Honored Sir,

In submitting the my humble application for Superannuation Pension, I beg most respectfully to bring to your favorable and official notice that my first appointment in the Board's Office as temporary clerk of the Board, formerly called Secretaries Office, was on a salary of Rs 7 per mensem, and so far back as the year 1814, when the Board was then and originally organized, under the orders of Government. In April 1821, I was confirmed in that appointment on a salary of Rs 10-8-0, which in the revision of the Establishment in 1867, was raised to Rs 12-0-0, my present pay. Thus I have completed a long service of 49 years and have always worked laboriously, and discharged my duties satisfactorily and faithfully.

I am now much advanced in years and suffer from all the infirmities attendant on old age. As I have no other source of income, it would be impossible in these hard days to maintain myself with my late Pension, and therefore humbly crave that your honor will, in consideration of my very long and faithful services be so benignant and merciful as to grant me Pension as well as to confer on my grandson the least part of a Pension which he is competent to hold, in order that I might be able to support myself and my large family in my old age. For which act of goodness I am duty bound.
