Dear

The Superintendent Officer
Greenwich district

Sir

The Assistant
Inspector General of Marine Police

Sir

In forwarding application from Gratuity from the individual named in the margin. I have the honor to explain the cause of delay in forwarding the application.

At the time of the claimant's discharge it appeared from reference to the district Register that the constable had not completed seven years service to entitle him for Gratuity & consequently your application

Catla Pallikar

application was then made but upon his representing that he had actually served for a longer period than was shown by the register further enquiry was made and it was clearly shown by the order book of the Prison that the individual had been entertained on the 1st of June 1862 but under a different number from that shown at the time of his discharge. It appeared that the error was made in transcribing the original register in which he appears as entertained on the 1st June 1862.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Yours most obedient Servant

Wm. M. L. Esq.

I, C. Doig, Acting Zillah Surgeon do hereby Certify that C. Pulliah
