Reply to Memorandum from the Accountant General dated 17th August 1870.

No 13— No gratuity appears to have been paid in 1868 to the applicant for compassionate allowance as the Gratiuity Rules do not seem to have been in existence then.

No 14— The applicant's name could not be found in the list of establishments from the 1st February 1870 as per arrangements made by the Salt Deputy Collector. The entry that the applicant was retained in service till the 14th February 1870 is a clerical error.

No 15— True translations of the orders referred to are herewith forwarded.

No 16— The leave appears to have been granted by the Principal Collector of the District as may be perceived from the accompanying copy of the Translation of the orders No 220 of the 23rd April and No 57 of 12th November 1868.

From your order No. 182 of the 23rd ultimo, it appears that Pilla Amella Nayayadu the person attached to the line platform of the Kharapatti station is unable to do his duty as he is suffering from "Mahaagruva" (venereal rheumatism) that he requested his post might be given to his younger brother Ramudu and that he (Ramudu) is sent to the Surgeon for inspection. Ramudu seems to be fit for the post. The said Nayayadu is an old servant of 22 years standing as would appear from the accounts sent now here. As he is unable to attend to his work owing to his ill health Pillimetta Karayader is removed from his post from the 23rd Instant and his younger brother Pillimetta Ramadas is appointed in his stead. You are therefore directed to remove Karayader from the above date and enter the name of Ramadas.

Ramadas and that he Ramadas said he was unable to he may be favored with his appointment.

It is true that his appointment was given to the said

Your arzi No. 43 of the 25th Instant together with the enclosures have been received. You have reported in your arzi that you had selected two boats to be sent to Krishnapatnam in accordance to my orders, that owing to the misconduct of the Port headman, P. K. S. Karaswami the boats were never sent there, that he declined to receive your Takid, which was taken to him by Baya Papaya, the Sas-taick, asking him to return it to you, that his conduct is bad and that you have submitted the yadast addressed to you by the P. K. S. (clerk) of the Port.

It appears that the Port headman only declined to take the boats for Government.

purposes, in accordance to your orders but that he also returned the taks sent by you.
From the Yadao written by the Port & Missinda it further appears that he neglects to perform the public duty connected with the Drift-wood, that that he is always engaged in cock fighting, that he practices as a physician, that he stops in those villages that he likes and that he refuses to inspect the Drift-wood whenever told by the Missinda. And as it clearly appears that his conduct is of the nature above referred to, and as the punishment you have recommended, namely, to transfer him to another Division is insufficient, I shall suspend Tarayadu from the 1st Proximo, and you should remove his name from your Reg. abstract from the next month. In addition to this, it appears from the report presented by Baya Baya that Tajella & Sobaya and Latani & Papaya were present when Tarayadu refused to receive your taks and returned to Papaya.
You should therefore obtain and submit to me,

Reports from those persons as regards what had taken place. You are also required to report as to whether the men who at first agreed before you to take the boat have subsequently taken them or not. 13

Order of Government. 19th October 1870. No. 555.

The Govt in Council is of opinion that the applicant, P. Narayadu, may be considered to have been on leave from the 22nd April to the 10th Nov^r 1868, and consequently that his absence for that period does not constitute absence in his service No. 74 4m. 10d. H. S. in C. is therefore pleased to grant to P. Narayadu, under the provisions of the Act, 14 Oct 1868, No. 132, a compassionate allowance of Rs. 3 per mensem, payable from the 1st Feb. 1870.
