His Excellency
The Right Honble
The Governor General of India in Council.

My Lord,

I have considered in Council your letter dated 10th June 1870. No. 133, intimating that you have sanctioned as a special case the grant of a half pay pension of Rs. 100 a month to Rishpann Magiri Naik, late Tehsildar of Nangauri, in the Sivegelly District, who rose by his good service and high character from the position of a peon to the responsible post of Tehsildar on a salary of Rs. 200 a month.

Under the circumstances stated,
I approve the grant of this pension.

I have &c
