which was sanctioned in order of Government No 47. 18th January 1864. And I beg leave to recommend that this allowance may be taken into account in calculating his gratuity.

Peter D'Costa's service on the Establishment only dates from the 1st September 1857. And he has consequently by only been given credit for eleven And a half years service, but his actual employment in the Mills commenced on 1st November 1846. making an additional period of sixteen years. His service has not been continuous, sometimes being for brief periods of a month, and the records are very incomplete, but his service appears to have been continuous since May 1852. He is now sixty years of age, quite broken down, and unfit to earn a livelihood; I recommend his case to the compassion of Government.

The Cases of the other six men do not call for explanation or
