Madras 8th October 1870

The humble Petition of Mootarumal

Pensioner

Humbly Sheweth

That your Petitioner humbly begs to state that her Receipt for pension dated 7th October 1870. amounting to Rupees 21 ... was refused payment, having fallen into arrears for more than 6 months (March 1869 to September 1870). your Petitioner owing to ill health (aggravated by a boil in her leg & naturally defective) was compelled to go to her Village for the benefit of her health. During the foregoing period your Petitioner was not able to present herself for procuring the necessary life Certificate as was usual in her case, nor was she able to get a respectable Officer of Govt. to Certify for her in the Village. Under the foregoing circumstances, your Petitioner was left in despair of drawing her Pension, and her expenses having nearly doubled and further increased with charges of medical attendance on her, she was forced to incur debt with prospect of repaying out of her Pension, the payment of which being objected, leads her to suppose that it ~~was~~ would have been better if her life terminated during her late illness, rather than protracted in such state of misery and hardship. Your Petitioner having explained as above the cause of allowing her Pension to fall in arrears, she humbly solicits the
