Sir.

In reply to your memo No. 123. dated 26th ult. I have the honor to inform you that the pension Roll of Head Const. Ameer Sing was forwarded through the Dy. Inspr. General, but my letter alluded to in your memo under reply was inadvertently placed in the wrong cover.

The explanation of delay is as follows.

The Head Const. was on leave in Madras, where he went into Hospital; on his return to Tanjore in September, he produced his Certificate of unfitness

On the 7th Septr. the Collector was called upon for the Head Constables [illegible] List, this appears to have been forwarded with his letter of the 13th Novr., which not being forthcoming a Copy was applied for, and received on the 11th Jany: 1870 – Printed Pension Rolls were then indented for+, and a reply received that they were not available for supply, on the 12th Feby: Manuscript Roll was then prepared and submitted on the 16th Feby:

Financial Department

Sir,

I am directed to submit the following case, which does not appear to be provided for by the Existing rules regarding pensions and gratuities, for the orders of the Government of India.

2. Ameer Sing, late Head Constable of the Tanjore Police, served as follows.

Revenue Department.
On Salaries less than Rs 10 — — —	y-m-D 3.11.18
do above 10 Rs in posts conferring claim to pension under the New Rules. — — —	14-6-2

Leave as a police officer and not to be deducted under the police Rules m. 2. d. 25.

He was declared physically unfit for Service on the 25th August 1869. — His last pay was

I would suggest this being kept for Council as unless there is an Express order declaring that a man entering the Police, ipso facto, forfeit all previous service of every kind I cannot see the necessity for a reference.

J. D. S.

There is no such Express order but it is taken for granted that he does — as special orders granting in particular cases permission to add police to previous service have been passed from time to time. What is now sought is to get such an order applicable to the present case. — (Vide memo circulated).

was 14. Rupees per mensem

3. The Accountant Genl. reports that, as the gratuity and pensions to Police Constables are now met from the Imperial Revenues, his police service be admitted, he will be eligible to a one-third pension under the new Rules. But the change in the source from which the police pensions & gratuities are met, does not affect the rules, under which they are given; and by express order of the Government of India, police Officers on Salaries of Rs. 20 & upwards are alone admissible to pension under the new Rules

3. I am to State that the Government of Madras is of opinion that it would be a hardship to refuse pension in this and Similar Cases; and I am to suggest that, if the Government of India is not prepared to allow all police service on Salaries above ten Rupees to be added to former service so as to confer claims to retiring allowances under the uncovenanted Service regulations, a rule may be laid down providing that when police service precedes or follows service in other departments, the two may be combined (subject to the condition of eligibility as regards amount of Salary) so that pension may be granted; but that, if the combined Service is not of sufficient length to give claim to pension, gratuity

Is this the case?
I was under the impression that 20 Rs was the limit between Imperial & Local Fund pensions – not the limit to pensions of any kind
J. D. S.

Vide G. I. R. 7 March 1864 No. 1232 para 5 – recorded in M. G. O. 31st March 1864 gratuity may be granted under those rules which may be most beneficial to the applicant, service qualifying under the most beneficial rules being alone admitted.

4. Thus, a man who has served 15 years, part eligible under the new rules & part as a policeman on pay above Rs 10, would get pension calculated as usual on his pay for last five years; but with 14 years service 8 qualifying under the new rules and 6 under the police rules, he would get a gratuity 8 times the pay of his last appointment qualifying under the new rules.

4. I am to point to the permission allowed to policemen to tack on police to previous service, to make up the 15 period prescribed for compassionate allowances, as in some sort a precedent for the concession now proposed.

Application for pension to Ameer Sing late Head Constable in the Tanjore Police.

I think he is entitled to reckon his service of 14y. 13d before entering the Police. & would rule accordingly –

J. D. S.

I would recommend the case to the Govt. of India

N. A.

The applicant was entertained in 1840 as a [illegible] on Rs 5 & with the exception of a break of 7m. 24d caused by reduction served continuously on salaries of less than ten rupees till the 8th Feb. 1845. He then served in grades eligible under the rules till 22nd May 1860, but during this period was suspended for 3 months & once degraded for carelessness. On the 23rd May 1860 he entered the police as a head constable, & served as Head & Deputy constable on salaries above ten rupees for 9y. 3m. 4d. His service was therefore as noted in the margin.

	[illegible]
Old rules.
3y 11m 20d.	Rs 7.
New Rules.
14y. 0m. 13d.	Rs 10.8.0. (for five years)
Police Rules.
9y. 3m. 4d.	Rs 14.

2. The Accountant General on the ground that pensions under the police rules are now paid from imperial revenues, reports that if Govt. consider that his service in the police & his in grades eligible for pension under the new rules may be combined, he may be granted a pension under the latter rules.

3. The reason given for this opinion is incorrect. The assumption by the State of the liabilities of the Police Superannuation Fund merely changed the source whence the pensions were paid; but in no way affected the rights or status of the subscribers to the fund. The rules, both of the general uncovenanted service, and of the police, remained unchanged.

4. There is no precedent for the decision of the case. The ~~following~~ Acct. Genl.

reports that if Govt. ~~agr~~ refuse to allow the applicant to tack his police service on to that qualifying under the new rules, in order to get pension under the latter, he will be eligible to a police gratuity only. Under the orders as they now stand it seems clear that this is all the applicant can get; but analogies may be drawn from the concessions which have been made to policemen in somewhat similar cases, which may induce Govt. to recommend to the Govt. of India that the applicants may be permitted to claim with reference to their whole service, if that service is sufficient to entitle them to ~~a~~ pensions

4. The following are the principles under which former service of policemen ~~are~~ is dealt with.

(i.) Peons, thrown out in Mr. Pelly's or other general revision of establishments prior to 1863, or on the introduction of the new police, who enter the police, are entitled on discharge for no fault within 5 years of enlistment, to claim the allowances to which they were entitled when thrown out; but their police service is excluded altogether.

(ii). Men who, before entering the police had service in grades qualifying under the old rules, & who are incapacitated after service in the police in excess of 5 years, are allowed to tack on their police service, & can get gratuities for their whole service under the old rules

This is a Madras order, & its scope is very limited, & is practically confined to cases when the police men ~~are~~ become incapacitated between 5 & 7 years service; for after 7 years police service, the police rules are more beneficial, allowing 7 months pay against 6 which is the maximum under the old rules.

(iii) If the police service in such cases, combined with the old service ~~be suffi~~ extend to 35 years compassionate allowance may be granted equal to half pay.

(iv) incapacitated Madras Town Policemen whose service as subscribers to a fund are necessarily at present insufficient to entitle them to pension under the Fund Rules, are allowed to tack on so much of their former service in the old town force as will enable them to claim the minimum pension under the Fund Rules.

This order will be recollected by Govt. It has not yet gone out.

5. There is thus a general tendency to allow policemen to tack on their police service, though the exact case now under discussion has not arisen. I submit that a reference should be made to the Govt. of India recommending the grant of the concession involved in allowing pension to be claimed under the U. C. S. rules in the present case t would be very expedient, as holding out inducements to persons now employed in inferior though eligible grades of the general service, & without much hope of promotion, to enter the police as head & deputy constables. The concession would do a great deal towards ~~im~~ ~~moving~~ facilitating the officering of the force in those ranks, which especially require good material. There are lots of men in the service as gumastas whose promotion is barred by rules regarding tests &c, & who would make excellent head constables, & would be glad to join the Police in that grade, with the chance of rising to an Inspectorship, if they were only permitted to carry their pension claims with them.

6. I submit further that if the combined general & police is insufficient to confer a right to pension, the rule should be that the applicant might claim under one set of rules only as might be most beneficial to him ~~as might be most beneficial to him~~. For example: a man with 8 years service in eligible grades followed by 7 years police service, should be allowed pension; ~~but~~ with 7 years general, & 7 years police service, 7 months gratuity under either set, but 12 months under the new rules; & with 8 ~~months~~ years general followed by 6 years police service, he would get 8 months pay (last pay of course) under the new rules.

Explanation of Column 8 with quotations of orders of reinstatement.	Explanation of any degradation.
The Circumstances under which the Applicant was unemployed have been already stated opposite Column 8. He was never dismissed.	Reduction in March 1855 was for negligence in Maramut works Reduction in November 1861 was for irregularity and absence from his station without leave Reduction in April 1863 was for not bringing to Magistrate's notice the release of Parties made over to him by Village Magistrate The Circumstances of these degradations do not appear to have been so serious as to affect the grant of pension claimed. The applicant has repeatedly regained his original post, and has retained the Post of Head Constable during the last 6 years.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Pension Department, 25th November 1870.

Read the following papers:—

From the Inspector-General of Police, dated 20th May 1870, No. 3059.

From the Accountant-General, dated 22nd July 1870, No. 916.

ORDER THEREON, 25th November 1870, No. 647.

Ameer Sing, late Head Constable in the Tanjore Police, served for three years, eleven months, and twenty days in ineligible grades; for fourteen years, six months, and two days in eligible grades; and for nine years, three months, and three days in the Tanjore Police.

2. The Accountant-General, on the ground that pensions to Police Officers are now payable from imperial funds, reports that, if Government think him entitled to the benefits of the new rules for his combined service of twenty-three years, five months, and eight days in qualifying grades and in the Police, he may be granted a pension, under those rules, of Rupees 4-8-0, or one-third of his pay during the last five years; but that, otherwise, he can only get a gratuity of nine months' pay, or Rupees 126, under the Police Rules.

3. The Government do not concur in the view taken by the Accountant-General. The change in the source from which Police pensions are met does not affect the rules under which they are granted.

4. It appears to the Government that the case is provided for in the Resolution of the Government of India, Financial Department, No. 1232, dated 7th March 1864. It is there laid down that Police Officers on Rupees 20 and upwards shall alone be pensioned under the Uncovenanted Civil Service Rules; and it is implied in paragraph 5, though not clearly stated, that all other Police Officers are to be pensioned under the rules of the Police Superannuation Fund. The latter part of paragraph 6 of the same Resolution clearly contemplates that Police Officers on less than Rupees 20 may add to their Police service, service in other departments in eligible grades.

5. In this view, it is clear that Ameer Sing is entitled to reckon his combined service above referred to, amounting to twenty-three years, five months, and eight days, and that this service is to be treated under the Police Superannuation Rules. As a Head Constable he is entitled, under the Superannuation Rules, to a pension of Rupees 4-8-0 per mensem, plus 1-8-0 for the six years qualifying service which he has rendered in excess of the period (fifteen years) necessary to entitle him to pension, or, in all, Rupees (6) six per mensem, which is sanctioned with effect from the 26th August 1869.

S. D. S.

Ameer Sing, late head constable in the Tanjore Police, served for 3 years, 11 months, and 20 days in ineligible grades; for 14 years 6 months and 2 days in eligible grades; and for 9 years 3 months and 3 days in the Tanjore Police

2. The Accountant General, on the ground that pensions to police officers are now payable from imperial funds, reports that if Govt think him entitled to the benefit benefits of the new rules for his combined service of 23 years 5 months and 8 days in qualifying grades and in the police, he may be granted a pension, under those Rules, of Rs 4-8-0 or one-third of his pay during the last 5 years; but that otherwise, he can only get a gratuity of 9 months' pay or Rs 126, under the police rules –

3 The Government do not concur in the view taken by ~~agree with~~ the Accountant General. The change in the source from which police pensions are met does not affect the rules under which they are granted.

4 It appears to the Govt. that the case is provided for

for in the Resolution of the Govt. of India, Finl. Department, No. 1232, dated 7th March 1864. It is there laid down that police Officers on Rs 20 and upwards shall alone be pensioned under the U. C. S. Rules; and it is implied in para 5, though not clearly stated, that all other police Officers are to be pensioned under the Rules of the Police Superannuation Fund. The latter part of para 6 of the same resolution clearly contemplates that police Officers, on less than Rs 20, may add to their police service, service in other Departments in Eligible grades.

5. In

5. In this view it is clear that Ameer Sing is entitled to reckon his combined service above referred to, amounting to 23 years 5 months and 8 days; and that this service is to be treated under the police superannuation rules. As head-constable he is entitled under the Superannuation Rules to a pension of Rs 4-8-0 per mensem, plus 1-8-0 for the six years qualifying service which he has rendered in excess of the period (15 years) necessary to entitle him to pension, or in all Rs 6-0-0 per mensem

mensem, which is sanctioned with effect from the 26th August 1869.
