To,

Major W. Tweedie
Assistant Resident
Hyderabad

Sir,

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of Docket Memoranda No. 665 and 690 dated the 2nd and 10th instant respectively from the Extra Asst. Commissioner in reply to my letters addressed to you on the 29th Ultimo and 1st Instant regarding my pension, you will kindly pardon me for again troubling you in this matter, The Sixth month is fast closing and the case is evidently getting confused, I have therefore to solicit your interference in my behalf ~~and~~ to set the thing right

The Order of Govt No. 276 of 9th July 1870 sanctioning the transfer of my pension from Madras to Hyderabad is with the Extra Asst. Commissioner at Hyderabad. The Dy. Acct. General at Madras forwarded on the

the 18th Ultimo to the Dy. Acct. General at Bolarum the last pay Certificate and a P.P. Order for payment of arrears of Pension. On the 31st July last I received a Memo from the Dy: Acct: General Madras informing me that my papers for pension were sent to the Dy: Acct: General here. On the 1st instant I went to Bolarum believing that I could draw arrears of pension but was told that G. O. No 276 referred to in the Memo of the Dy: Acct. General Madras and the authority from Calcutta was no received in that Office. Consequently I had to return without pension. I have subsequently learned that my pension papers were returned to Madras on the 2nd Instant. I wrote to one of the Assistants in the Acct: General's Office at Madras stating that my papers for pension were sent back and in his reply which I have just received he states, that being ignorant of the way in which business is conducted here. he cannot tell how far the Dy: Acct: Genl: Bolarum is correct in returning the papers to Madras. In my poor way of thinking I believe that the Dy: Acct: General finding that I am to draw pension through the Treasury Officer at Hydd should have made over the papers to your Office here, so that arrears of pension may be paid and the permanent payable Order from the Comptroller General of Accounts, Calcutta which is the authority for future payments would follow in due course, however feeling assured that your superior judgment will soon rectify what is gone wrong.

I beg to remain &c.

No 2953

To,

Mr T. R. Scriven
Pensioner

Dated Hyderabad Residency 3rd September 1870.

In reply to letter of the 17th instant states that the rule which withholds payment of pensions, that are allowed to fall fall into arrears for more than 6 months will not apply in Mr. Scriven's case as the delay is not owing to any neglect on his own part but is caused by an apparent misunderstanding in the Office of the Acct. General Madras.

Mr. Scriven being a pensioner of the Madras Govt: will be paid from the Political or Imperial Treasury at Hyd. His papers should therefore have been sent to the Comptroller General of Accounts Calcutta and not to the Dy. Acct. General Hyd: who supervises only the Residency Civil Treasury from which no items are disbursed other than those appertaining to the Hyd: Assigned District.

As Mr. Scriven's papers would appear to have been returned to the Acct. General Madras by the Dy: Acct. General Hyd: the former Officer has doubtless ere this rectified his mistake and sent them on to the Comptr. General of Accounts.

The Madras Govt: will however be addressed on the subject by the Resident.

If Mr. Scriven is in Need of Funds, arrears of Pension will be disbursed as an advance on presentation to the Extra Asst. Commr. of a receipt in the accompanying form.

Sir,

With reference to Extract from Proceedings of the Madras Government No. 504 dated 23rd Ultimo, I have the honor, under instructions from the Resident, to solicit attention to the papers forwarded with this Office letter referred to in the Proceedings and to state that two Treasuries exist under the Hyderabad Administration; one the Cantt. Treasury of the Government of India, under the supervision of the Comptroller General of Accounts, Calcutta; the other, the Civil Treasury relating entirely to the Hyderabad Assigned Districts, under the supervision of the Deputy Accountant General, Hyderabad.

2 The delay was caused by the papers in Mr. Scriven's case having been forwarded to the latter instead of to the Comptroller General

General of Accounts. Mr. Scriven being a pensioner of the Imperial Government and not of the Hyderabad Assigned Districts the Deputy Accountant General was precluded from issuing a Permanent Payable order in favor of the Pensioner on the Political Treasury.
